A PROCLAMATION.

FOR A GENERAL FAST.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God to visit the iniquities of the Nation by a grievous scarcity and dearth of divers articles of sustenance and necessities of life, in several parts of the United Kingdom: And whereas Her Majesty, trusting in the mercy of Almighty God, that, notwithstanding the sore punishment which He hath laid upon Her Majesty and Her people, He will, if we return to Him in due contrition and penitance of heart, withdraw His afflicting hand, has commanded that a Public Fast and Humiliation should be observed throughout the United Kingdom: And whereas it is highly becoming that so pious an example should be imitated in this part of Her Majesty's Dominions, I have thought fit, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Executive Council, hereby to appoint Wednesday the sixteenth day of June next, to be a day of Public Fasting and Humiliation to be observed throughout the Province, that we may humble ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain pardon of our sins, and may in the most devout and solemn manner send up our prayers and supplications to the Divine Majesty, for the removal of those heavy judgments which our manifold sins and provocations have most justly deserved, and fervently to implore the Divine favor and protection on behalf of our Most Gracious Sovereign and Her People: And whereas a suitable Form of Prayer has been prepared for this purpose by the Honorable and Right Reverend the Bishop of Fredericton; I do hereby authorize and appoint the same to be used on this solemn occasion in all Churches and Chapels throughout this Province, and I do hereby solemnly enjoin all Her Majesty's loving subjects in this Province, reverently and devoutly to observe the said Public Fast, as they tender the favor of Almighty God, and would avert His wrath and indignation.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Fredericton, the fourteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty seven, and in the tenth year of Her Majesty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command.

JOHN S. SAUNDERS.
