CAP. CIII.

An Act to amend the Passengers Act, and to make further Provision for the Carriage of Passengers by Sea.

[22d July 1847.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the Fifth and Sixth Years of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for regulating the Carriage of Passengers in Merchant Vessels, it is amongst other things provided, that the said Act shall not extend to any Ship carrying less than Thirty Passengers, and it is expedient that the said Act should be amended in that respect: Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the said recited Act shall hereafter extend and the same is hereby extended to the Case of every Ship carrying any Passenger on any such Voyage as in the said recited Act is mentioned: Provided that when the Number of Passengers carried in any such Ship shall not bear to the registered Tonnage thereof a greater Proportion than that of One Passenger to every Twenty five Tons, so much and such Parts only as are next hereinafter specified of the said recited Act shall extend and are hereby extended to the Case of any such Ship; that is to say, such Parts thereof as relate to the Recovery of Money in certain Cases by way of Return of Passage Money; or as relate to Subsistence Money; or as relate to Compensation to be made for the Loss of Passage; or as relate to the giving Receipts for Money received for or in respect of any Passage to North America; or as relate to the Receipt of Money for or in respect of any such Passage by any Person as Agent, not having a written Authority from his Principal to act in that Capacity; or as relate to the inducing of any Person by any Fraud or false Pretence to engage any such Passage; or as relate to any Prosecution or other Proceeding at Law for the Recovery of such Passage or Subsistence Money, or of such Compensation as aforesaid, or for the Infliction of any Fines or Penalties in respect of any of the Matters
