N. H. DEVEBER, SHERIFF.

We have been favoured with a copy of an Address presented to the Honorable Mr. Justice Street by the Grand Jury of Sunbury, at the late Sunbury Circuit, and the Judge's reply, which we have pleasure in publishing.

To the Honorable Mr. Justice STREET.

May it please Your Honor,

We, the Grand Jury for the County of Sunbury, beg leave to congratulate Your Honor upon your elevation to the Bench of the Supreme Court of Judicature of this Province, and also upon this your first visit, in your Judicial capacity, to your native County.

It is a source of much gratification to us that our Gracious Sovereign should have selected, in the person of Your Honor, a Gentleman from the Bar of New Brunswick, whose professional talents, attainments, honorable feelings, and independent conduct, are well known and highly appreciated throughout the Community; and we doubt not that Your Honor will continue to pursue the upright course which has ever marked your career through life, thereby tending (if possible) to strengthen our attachment to our Sovereign, and the Laws and Constitution of our Country.

It is with feelings of pride and satisfaction that we claim you as a native of Sunbury; and we heartily welcome you to our County, with a fervent wish that, in the discharge of your high and responsible duties, every success may attend you, and that you may long be spared in the enjoyment of all temporal blessings.

We remain, with sincere respect,

(Signed on behalf of the Grand Jury.)

STEPHEN BURPE, Foreman.

Burton, February 23, 1847.

Mr. Justice STREET, on receiving the Address, replied—

Gentlemen of the Grand Jury,

I return you my best thanks for your kind and flattering Address, which is the more gratifying to me, as it comes from those, among many of whom I have spent the boyhood of my life, and to whom I am therefore the better known as inhabitants of the County which is the place of my birth; and although I have been separated from the County, and from a residence among its inhabitants, for many years, yet I am happy to find you have not forgotten me as one of yourselves, and are ready to give me so kind a welcome on this my first appearance here in my Judicial character, in the discharge of the duties of the station in which it has pleased Her Majesty to place me.

There are many of your body who are personally wellknown to me from the days of my youth, and I never can cease to take a warm interest in the prosperity of this County, and its inhabitants at large.

I trust that my future career as a Judge, will secure to me a continuance of that high esteem and kindly feeling from you all, which your Address has in so flattering a manner expressed, and I hope as often as my duties call me here, I may find this County as free from crime as I have had the pleasure on this occasion.
