

said Council of our said College shall have power and authority to frame and make statutes, rules and ordinances touching and concerning the good government of the said College, the performance of Divine Service therein, the Studies, Lectures, Exercises, Degrees in Arts and Faculties, and all matters regarding the same, the residence and duties of the President of our said College, the number, residence and duties of the Professors thereof, the management of the revenues and property of the said College, the salaries, stipends, provisions and emoluments of and for the President, Professors, Scholars, Officers and Servants thereof, the number and duties of such Officers and Servants, and also touching and concerning any other matter or thing which to them shall seem good, fit and useful for the well being and advancement of our said College, and agreeable to this our Charter, and also from time to time by any new statutes, rules or ordinances to revoke, renew, augment or alter all, every or any of the said statutes, rules and ordinances as to them shall seem meet and expedient; provided always, that the said statutes, rules and ordinances or any of them, shall not be repugnant to the Laws and Statutes of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland or of our said Province of New Brunswick, or to this our Charter; provided also, that the said statutes, rules and ordinances shall be subject to the approbation of the said Visitor of the said College for the time being, and shall be forthwith transmitted to the said Visitor for that purpose, and that in case the said Visitor shall for us, and on our behalf, in writing, signify his disapprobation thereof within two years of the time of their being so made and framed, the same or such part thereof as shall be so disapproved by the said Visitor, shall from the time of such disapprobation being made known to the said Chancellor of our said College, be utterly void and no effect, but otherwise shall be and remain in full force and virtue; provided nevertheless, and we do hereby expressly save and reserve to us, our heirs and successors, the power of reviewing, confirming or revising by any order or orders to be by us or them made in our or their Privy Council, all or any of the decisions, sentences or orders so to be made as aforesaid by the said Visitor for us and on our behalf, in reference to the said statutes, rules and ordinances or any of them; And we do further ordain and declare, that no statute, rule or ordinance shall be framed or made by the said College Council, touching the matters aforesaid, or any of them, excepting only such as shall be proposed for the consideration of the said Council, by the Chancellor for the time being of our said College; And we do require and enjoin the said Chancellor thereof to consult with the President of our said College and the next senior member of the said College Council, respecting all statutes, rules and ordinances to be proposed by him to the said Council for their consideration: And we do hereby for us, our heirs and successors charge and command that the statutes, rules and ordinances aforesaid, subject to the said provisions, shall be strictly and inviolably observed, kept and performed from time to time, in vigour and effect, under the penalties to be thereby or therein imposed or contained; And we do further will, ordain and grant that the said College shall be deemed and taken to be an University, and shall have and enjoy all such and the like privileges as are enjoyed by our Universities of our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, as far as the same are capable of being had and enjoyed by virtue of these our Letters Patent, and that the Students in the said College shall have liberty and faculty of taking the Degrees of Bachelor, Master and Doctor in the several Arts and Faculties at the appointed times, and shall have liberty within themselves of performing all Scholastic Exercises for the conferring such Degrees in such manner as shall be directed by the statutes, rules and ordinances of the said College; And we do further will, ordain and appoint, that no religious teste or qualification shall be required of or appointed for any persons admitted or matriculated as Scholars within our said College, or of persons admitted to any Degree in any Art or Faculty therein, save only that all persons admitted within our said College to any Degree in Divinity, shall make such and the same declaration and subscription, and take such and the same oaths as are required of persons admitted to any Degree of Divinity in our University of Oxford; And we do further will, direct and ordain that the Chancellor, President and Professors of our said College, and all persons admitted therein to the Degree of Master of Arts, or to any Degree in Divinity, Law or Medicine, and who from the time of such their admission to such Degree, shall pay the annual sum of twenty shillings sterling money, for and towards the support and maintenance of the said College, shall be and be deemed, taken and reputed to be members of the Convocation of the said University, and as such members of the said Convocation shall have, exercise
