

' King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for improving the administration of Justice in Criminal Cases, do not apply to the crime of Forgery ;

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That if any person shall commit any offence of forging or altering any writing or matter whatsoever, or of offering, uttering, disposing of, or putting off any writing or matter whatsoever, knowing the same to be forged or altered, with intent to defraud any person whomsoever, whether the offence in any such case shall be indictable at Common Law, or by virtue of any Act or Acts now in force, or hereafter to be made, the offence of every such offender may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished, and laid and charged to have been committed in any County or place in which he shall be apprehended or in custody, as if his offence had been actually committed in that County or place ; and every principal in the second degree, and every accessory before the fact, and every accessory after the fact, may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished, and his offence laid and charged to have been committed in any County or place in which the principal offender may be tried.

Trials, &c. for forgery or utterance may be had, &c. in any County in which the offender may be apprehended.

Accessories may be tried in the same place as the principals.

LXII.

An Act further to amend the Law regulating proceedings before Justices of the Peace in Civil Suits.

Passed 14th April 1847.

I. BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That if any order for the removal of any cause tried before any Justice of the Peace under and by virtue of the Act of Assembly made and passed in the fourth year of the Reign of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to regulate proceedings before Justices of the Peace in Civil Suits, shall be or hath already been obtained by any party proceeding under the said Act, and the Justice to whom the same shall be directed shall transmit or deliver, or shall have transmitted or delivered his return to such order to the party obtaining the same, or his Attorney, it shall be the duty of such party, or his Attorney, within one calendar month after receiving the same, to deliver the said return to the Judge who made the said order, and within the time aforesaid, or if the said return shall have been received by the said Judge from the said Justice, then within one calendar month from such time, to make application to the said Judge for a day to be appointed for the hearing of the cause, and for taking all other necessary proceedings for the hearing and finally disposing of the said cause on review, agreeably to the requirements of the said Act.

Party obtaining an order for the removal of a cause tried before a Justice of the Peace, and which has been obeyed, shall apply to the Judge within a calendar month to appoint a time for the hearing, &c.

II. And be it enacted, That on any default by such party in taking such proceedings, and the same being made satisfactorily to appear to the said Judge so granting such order, the said Judge is hereby authorized, on the application of any party interested, to remit the cause to the Justice making such return, and allow to such party costs on the proceedings in review, in like manner as in cases of affirmance of the judgment, to be taxed and recovered as in other cases under and by virtue of the said Act, or any Acts in amendment thereof; and thereupon no further removal of such cause shall be allowed, either by any of the Judges of the Supreme Court or by the Supreme Court.

On default, Judge to remit the cause and allow costs.

II. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not come into operation or be in force until the first day of June next.
