

Province—from the arrival during the season, and especially at a late period of it, of so large a number of indigent and helpless persons, often infected with disease, it is but just to remark that the expenses attendant on the care and provision of them, have not, in the present year, been allowed to fall as a charge on the Corporation funds; but on the contrary, the accounts of these disbursements, when rendered and passed, have been punctually discharged by the Government. Neither will it be found, on examination of these accounts, that the disbursements throughout the season have so far exceeded the funds placed at the disposal of the Government, as to constitute a heavy charge on the public finances.

Under these circumstances, and with a full knowledge of the disposition manifested by Her Majesty's Government, in their cordial approval of His Excellency's co-operation with the local authorities, His Excellency cannot but regret the terms of the Resolutions which have been forwarded to him for transmission, the publication of which in the newspapers has, moreover, been calculated to induce a prevalent belief in the community at large, that a greater sacrifice has been incurred by the public in the present year than it has in reality been called to sustain. His Excellency feels every confidence, however, that the Mayor and Common Council will not, on the present occasion, relax their efforts to alleviate the distress prevailing among the people who have recently arrived, and in which His Excellency will be prepared, as heretofore, to render them every assistance; while, from the particular circumstances attending the arrival of these Emigrants, it will become his duty to call on the Emigration Officer at Saint John for a special and detailed report of their condition.

In regard to the measure adopted by the Mayor and Common Council, in offering to the Emigrants a free passage back to their native country, His Excellency does not feel himself called on to offer any remark, further than to observe, that the expenses thus proposed to be incurred cannot be admitted as a charge which the Government would be authorized to defray, and for which the Corporation must therefore be themselves responsible.

I have the honor, &c.

(Signed) JOHN S. SAUNDERS.

James William Boyd, Esq., Common Clerk, &c. St. John.
