

CAP. III.

An Act to prevent the free Navigation of the Internal Waters of the Province from being impeded by any Railway Works.

Passed 12th March 1847.

Preamble.

‘WHEREAS it is expedient that the Executive Government of the said Province should have a general control over all Works undertaken by Railway Companies, which might have a tendency to impede the free Navigation of the Internal Waters of the said Province ;

Railway Companies restrained from constructing Tunnels or Bridges so as to impede free Navigation of Rivers and Canals.

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That it shall not be lawful for any Railway Company in this Province to construct or maintain any Tunnels, Bridges, Passages or other Works over or under any navigable River and Canals in the said Province, which may have a tendency to impede the free Navigation of the same.

CAP. IV.

An Act to suspend the operation of the sixth and seventh Sections of an Act for the further regulation of Fisheries, and for preventing their decay, in certain cases.

Passed 12th March 1847.

Preamble.

50 G. 3, c. 20.

‘WHEREAS the sixth and seventh Sections of an Act made and passed in the fiftieth year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the further regulation of Fisheries and for preventing their decay, have been found in their operation to be extremely inconvenient, in certain cases ;

Act 50 G. 3, c. 20, s. 6 and 7 suspended as to the River Nashwaak and its Tributaries.

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That the sixth and seventh Sections of an Act made and passed in the fiftieth year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for the further regulation of Fisheries and for preventing their decay, be and they are hereby suspended in their operation in so far as relates to the Nashwaak River and its Tributaries, in the County of York.

CAP. V.

An Act to extend the provisions of an Act intituled An Act for the appointment of Firewards in the Parish of Woodstock, to the Bend of Petitcodiac, in the County of Westmorland.

Passed 12th March 1847.

Preamble.

‘WHEREAS it is deemed expedient and necessary that provision should be made for the appointment of Firewards, and the better extinguishment of Fires at the Bend of the Petitcodiac, in the County of Westmorland ;

Bend of Petitcodiac defined for the purposes of this Act.

I. Be it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That, for the purposes of this Act, the Bend of the Petitcodiac shall be deemed and taken to include and comprise the following land or district, viz: Commencing at the mouth of Jonathan's Creek, thence running North four miles, thence running East three miles, thence running South to the River Petitcodiac, thence following the said River to the place of beginning.

Act 6 W. 4, c. 27, and 8 V. c. 21, extended to the Bend of Petitcodiac.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, an Act made and passed in the sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for the appointment of Firewards in the Parish of Woodstock, and also an Act made and passed in the eighth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, to continue the said Act, and all the provisions of the said Acts, be and the same are hereby extended to the Bend of Petitcodiac, in the County of Westmorland.

CAP. VI.

An Act to extend the provisions of an Act, intituled An Act to repeal the Laws now in force for appointing Firewards, and the better extinguishing of Fires, so far as the same relate to the Towns of Newcastle and Chatham, in the County of Northumberland, and to make regulations more suitable for the said Towns, and for other purposes therein mentioned, to the Town of Douglastown, in the said County.

Passed 12th March 1847.

Act 9 V. c. 41, extended to Douglastown in Northumberland.

I. BE it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That from and after the passing of this Act, an Act made and passed in the ninth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Queen Victoria, intituled An Act to repeal the Laws now in force for appointing Firewards, and the better extinguishing of Fires, so far as the same relate to the Towns of Newcastle and Chatham, in the County of Northumberland, and to make regulations more suitable to the said Towns, and for other purposes therein mentioned, and all the provisions thereof, be and the same are hereby extended to the Town of Douglastown, in the said County.
