

such wood shall be proceeded against as any other incumbrance on the street; and the owner or owners thereof shall, in addition to the foregoing penalties, be subject to the like penalties and forfeitures as are hereby imposed on persons placing obstructions or incumbrances on any of the streets.

XV. And be it enacted, That any person or persons who shall play at ball or any other game or games of any nature or kind whatsoever; or any person or persons who shall use any obscene or profane language, violent cursing or swearing, or who shall indecently expose his or her person or persons, or any part thereof, in any public street, thoroughfare, alley, road, bye road, landing, wharf, public square or open plot of ground; or any person or persons who shall, by any insulting or abusive language or behaviour, taunting epithets or threatening gestures, attempt to provoke any other person or persons to commit a breach of the peace in any public street, thoroughfare, alley, road, bye road, wharf, landing, square or open plot of ground, or whereby a breach of the peace may be occasioned; or any person or persons who shall be found intoxicated, or feigning to be intoxicated, or making any loud bawling, yelling, singing, screaming or shouting in any public street, thoroughfare, alley, road, bye road, landing, wharf, public square or open plot of ground, shall for each and every offence against the provisions of this section, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds nor less than five shillings.

XVI. And be it enacted, That any person or persons who, without the consent of the owner or occupier, shall affix any posting bill or paper against or upon any building, wall, fence or pale, or shall inscribe or delineate anything thereon with chalk or paint, or in any other way whatsoever; or shall wilfully break, destroy, deface or damage any part of such building, wall, fence or pale, or any fixture or appendage thereto, or any tree, shrub or seat in any public walk or garden; or shall write or draw any indecent or obscene word, figure or representation on any such building, wall, fence, pale, or any fixture or appendage thereto, shall for each and every offence forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than five shillings.

XVII. And be enacted, That one or more public or posting place or places shall be from time to time established in each and every Ward of the said City, to be taken and deemed to be fit and proper places for posting or affixing printed or written notices or placards; and any person or persons removing, defacing, or otherwise injuring any notices thereon affixed, within one week of the date thereof, or of the time at which they were so affixed, shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding ten shillings for each and every offence.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to fire or discharge any gun, fowling piece, pistol or other fire arms, the contents of which are projected by gun powder, gun cotton or compressed air, (except in the discharge of some Military duty or exercise required by law,) or to set off any cracker, squib or fireworks, or to make and set fire to any bonfire, or to throw any snow ball, stone, dirt, or other missile, or to shoot with bow and arrows, in, upon, along or across any of the streets, lanes, squares, open plots of ground, wharves or landing places within the said City, under a penalty not exceeding five pounds nor less than five shillings for each and every offence; and if any person or persons so offending be a minor, apprentice or servant, the parent, guardian, or master of such offender, shall be liable to the payment of the said penalty.

XIX. And be it enacted, That no cellar door, porch, railing or other erection whatsoever which may hereafter be built, shall be permitted to open or encroach upon any of the side walks of any street, lane, alley, wharf or thoroughfare within this City; and the doors of all cellar steps now opening upon any of the streets, lanes, alleys, wharves or thoroughfares within the City, shall be reduced to the level of the street or planked side walk, and properly secured; and that the occupiers of all tenements in which the approach to the cellar is by steps from the street shall keep the door covering of the said steps secured, and the same shall not be opened at any time except for the purpose of putting goods, chattels or things into or taking the same out of the said cellar, and in such case such door shall not be permitted to remain open for a longer period than one hour at any one time; provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent or be construed to prevent the proprietors or occupiers of houses in any street, except Queen street, from erecting temporary porches or snow boxes at the entrance of their houses, from the first day of November to the first day of May in each year, such porches or snow boxes not however to project more than four feet into the street; and every person or persons infringing any of the provisions of this section, shall, for each and every offence, forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding five pounds nor less than five shillings.

XX. And be it enacted, That no cart, sled or other vehicle of any kind or description whatsoever, shall be permitted to remain unoccupied on any part of the public streets of the said City, under a penalty not exceeding ten shillings for each and every offence.

XXI. And be it enacted, That any person or persons walking on any of the side walks or planking thereof shall keep to the right hand side, under a penalty not exceeding five shillings for each and every offence; and any number of persons walking up or down the said side walk or planking, shall in the event of meeting any person or persons coming from an opposite direction, not occupy more than one half of the said side walk or planking, nor in passing shall more than three persons walk abreast, under a penalty of five shillings for each and every offence; and no number of persons shall collect together in or upon any of the said side walks or planking in a group or groups, occupying more than one half of the width of the said sidewalk or planking, under a penalty of not exceeding twenty shillings for each and every offence.

XXII. And be it enacted, That no person or persons shall lead, ride or drive any horse or other animal, or draw or drive any cart, carriage, sled, truck or barrow, upon any sidewalk or planked footway, other than for the purpose of crossing the same; and that no person or persons shall fasten any horse or other animal in such a manner that it can stand across or upon any of the sidewalks or platforms, under a penalty not exceeding twenty shillings for each and every offence; and that any cartman or other person who shall break or otherwise injure any sidewalk or planked footway within this City, shall cause the same to be repaired within twenty four hours thereafter, under a penalty of twenty shillings for each and every offence.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That no person or persons shall erect or keep any stand for the sale of fruit, or any other goods or things whatsoever, by auction or otherwise, within the said City, save and except upon the Public Squares thereof, without having first obtained a Licence from the City Council, specifying the place where such stand is to be erected, under a penalty not exceeding ten shillings nor less than five shillings for each and every offence.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall be guilty of disorderly riding, driving or horse racing upon any street, lane, thoroughfare or alley within the said City, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay a penalty not exceeding five pounds and not less than five shillings for each and every offence.

XXV. And be it enacted, That any person or persons who shall drive any carriage, cart, waggon, dray, truck, sleigh, sled or other vehicle of any description, or shall ride upon any of the streets or roads within the City, and who shall meet or be overtaken by any other person or persons driving or riding on such streets or
