ADDRESS

To the Honorable LEMUEL ALLEN WILMOT, a Member of Her Majesty's Executive Council, and Her Majesty's Attorney General for the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.; and

To the Honorable CHARLES FISHER, a Member of Her Majesty's Executive Council, &c. &c. &c.

The undersigned, inhabitants of the Parish of Southampton, and the upper part of the Parish of Dumfries, beg leave most sincerely to congratulate you on your appointment to those honorable stations to which you have lately been elevated. The voice of the people having placed you in a situation which enables you to receive those offices of honour and emolument to which your merits so justly entitle you, we rejoice not only on your account, that you are in some measure rewarded for your great exertions as the champions of Liberty and of British Constitutional principles; but on our own, that the affairs of the Province are placed under the direction of such ability and integrity as will justify us in believing that they will be managed for the interests and prosperity of the Province. It is therefore our most sincere wish that you may continue to receive-as we feel confident you will deserve-the confidence and support of your Constituents, who, if they possess the least gratitude for long, tried and faithful services, will not lightly withdraw their confidence and support.

We beg also to assure you that we perceive with the deepest regret that a strong faction is exerting all its influence to poison the minds of the people, and to induce them to become the hitter enemies of their best friends; for what purpose, let all candid and reflecting minds judge.

To conclude, gentlemen, we most sincerely wish you a long continuance in that honest, honorable and brilliant career, which you have so long, so faithfully, and so successfully pursued.

MR. WILMOT'S REPLY;

GENTLEMEN,

I beg leave to thank you most sincerely for the very kind and complimentary Address of congratulation which you have presented to myself and my colleague, on our recent elevation to the positions which we now occupy in the Government of the Country.

I have received the honor thus conferred upon me as a reward for my consistent advocacy of those salutary principles of Government which are now in operation, and which constitute the only permanent security of British Representative Institutions.

I frankly acknowledge that to the voice of the people I am indebted for the honor and emolument which have been conferred upon me; and if any credit is due to myself for the recent victory of principles, it is equally due to my Constituents, who have borne me up, when the storms of personal and political opposition threatened my overthrow.

I will not pause to enquire into the motives which may actuate those who at present say all manner of evil against me-I can afford to forgive them-I have always had political enemies, and it is my belief that I shall never be without them so long as I faithfully discharge my public duty; and if there be, as you observe, a strong faction exerting its influence against me, I beg you will not be at all alarmed on my account, nor allow your partiality for me to lead you into personal strife with factious men. Gentlemen, I trust I can live down a faction, and I am not prepared to believe that I shall be deserted by my old friends in the time of need, so long as I apply myself with diligence and honesty of purpose to the interests of the country.

Gentlemen, it affords me much pleasure to say, that I am associated in the Government with those who are influenced by a single desire to advance the prosperity and develope the resources of the Province; and as we acknowledge the public confidence to be our only basis, so, when deprived of this, shall we be prepared to resign our trust into other hands.

Wishing you every degree of prosperity and happiness, I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant, L. A. WILMOT.

Fredericton, July 15, 1848.

MR. FISHER'S REPLY.

GENTLEMEN,

I thank you sincerely for your very flattering Address. It is gratifying to notice the names of so many of my old and tried friends in Southampton and Dumfries, who have sustained me in past political conflicts. It has induced many pleasing recollections, mingled with the mournful remembrance of friends who are no more. When a very young man, I presented myself as a Candidate for your suffrages, I was warmly greeted by many of the
