YORK GENERAL SESSIONS.

JUNE TERM, A. D. 1849.

ORDERED, That the following Rules and Regulations relative to proceedings to be had before the Court of Common Pleas and General Sessions of the Peace for the County of York be in future rigidly enforced, any Rule, Practice or Precedent heretofore existing to the contrary notwithstanding:—

COMMON PLEAS.

1st. It shall be the duty of the Justices, at or before the close of each Term, to nominate the Justice who shall open the Court at the next succeeding Term; an entry of which to be made in the Minutes of the Court, and communicated in writing by the Clerk to the person so nominated. And in case it should be impossible for the Justice appointed to attend, it shall be his duty to request another Justice to act for him, and to signify the same in writing to the Clerk of the Court (naming his substitute) at as early a day as possible.

2d. Ordered, That the Court do open at 11, A. M., on the first day of the Term, and at 10, A. M., on each succeeding day, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding Justice.

3d. It shall be the duty of the Judge opening the Court to preside as Chairman during that Term, in all matters relating to the administration of Justice, Common Pleas as well as Criminal; but in all other matters, the Senior Justice may preside.

4th. Ordered, That all persons having business at the said Courts do attend, with their witnesses, on the first day of the Term, and that all Causes for Trial be entered on the Docket before 12 o'clock at noon on that day; after which hour the Clerk shall not enter a Cause without the permission of the Court.

5th. That immediately after the opening of the Court the Causes entered shall be called over in the order in which they stand on the Docket; and in case the parties are not prepared to go to Trial, the Cause shall immediately be struck off, unless a reasonable excuse be offered, to the satisfaction of the Court, by affidavit.

6th. That in case of any negligence or default on the part of the Sheriff in summoning the Juries, and in all cases of the non-attendance of Jurors, properly summoned; Ordered, that the penalties therefor be strictly enforced.

7th. Ordered, That the first day of the Term be devoted to Common Pleas business, and to the appointment of the several Committees of Sessions:

That the second day be devoted to such Common Pleas business as may not have been finished, and to Criminal matters:

That Thursday the third day be devoted to finishing such Criminal matters as may have remained over; and that as soon as these are disposed of, the general business of the Sessions shall be taken up,—the investigation and passing of Accounts taking precedence of other matters.
