

and gentleness are now chiefly practised in institutions like the latter, and have thus given a new character to the mode of managing the insane, I consider that you are peculiarly qualified to carry out this improved and humane course of medical attendance, as you have been always well known for the energy and benevolence of your disposition. And confident that your qualifications entitle you to the highest consideration, and wishing you every success and happiness,

I remain, my dear Sir, faithfully yours,
W. GRIGOR.

Dr. Waddell.

During a residence of nearly six years in Londonderry, Colchester, where I practised as a Physician, I had frequent opportunities of becoming acquainted with Doctor John Waddell, both professionally and socially; and the result is, that I have formed a very high opinion, as well of his talents, acquirements and skill as a practitioner, as of his benevolence, firmness and integrity as a man.

JONATHAN BORDEN.

November 24, 1849.

This is to show that I have known Dr. Waddell for some years past, personally, as well as by reputation, from both of which causes I have every confidence in his professional abilities and moral character.

Horton, N. S., 24th Nov. 1849.

MY DEAR WADDELL,—Understanding that you have lately received a proposal to undertake the superintendence of the New Brunswick Lunatic Asylum, I have great pleasure in bearing witness to the eminent qualifications, both mental and acquired, which I think you possess, to discharge the difficult duties of that situation. And while I offer you my sincere congratulations, I may add my hopes that the services which are likely to devolve upon you may not prove too irksome and onerous for your future health and comfort.

I am, my dear W., yours, very sincerely,
EDW. L. BROWN.

Halifax, 21st Nov. 1849.

Though I have not had an opportunity of much personal intimacy with Dr. Waddell, yet I have known him sufficiently, from circumstances, for many years, to be able to speak of him in terms of the highest commendation, as respects both his moral and professional character; and it affords me great pleasure to have this opportunity of doing so.

ALEX. F. SAWERS, M. D.

Annapolis Royal, 25th Nov. 1849.

MY DEAR SIR,—This will be handed you by Doctor Waddell, who informs me that he is on his way to New Brunswick, in expectation of receiving a responsible Medical appointment in your Province: I have therefore taken the liberty of addressing you, and bearing my humble testimony in his behalf.

During a residence of some twelve years in Truro, as High Sheriff of the County of Colchester, I had ample opportunity of being thoroughly acquainted with his character as a Gentleman and a Christian; and I do not hesitate to state, most conscientiously, that in these various relations, his conduct, in my estimation and that of the community at large, was in the strictest sense unexceptionable. He attended my family professionally, and gave perfect satisfaction; and I have always heard his professional attainments highly spoken of.—Again apologizing for the freedom with which I have thus addressed you in thus discharging a pleasing duty, and fully satisfied that you will have no cause for regret in having forwarded the views of that Gentleman,

I remain, dear Sir, with sentiments of esteem,
most respectfully and truly yours,
GEO. R. GRASSIE.

To the Hon. L. A. Wilmot, &c. &c. &c.

Cornwallis, 24th Nov. 1849.

DEAR SIR,—From an acquaintance of several years, I have great pleasure in bearing testimony to your high professional and moral character—and it further occurs to me that constitutionally you are peculiarly fitted for being in charge of a Lunatic Asylum.

Yours, very truly,
J. FORSYTH, M. D.

Dr. John Waddell.

These are to certify that Dr. John Waddell, of Truro, Nova Scotia, for many years has been, and still is, a member in full communion with the Presbyterian Church of Nova Scotia—that he is well known as such in the different Congregations of the Body—and holds several important ecclesiastical offices which could only be conferred on a person having the full confidence of the Church, as regards integrity and consistency of religious character.

That Dr. John Waddell, of Truro, Nova Scotia, is a Member and an Elder of the Truro Congregation—that he is at present a constituent member of the Presbytery of Truro, and also Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church—and that in all these capacities, he has, as we believe, the entire confidence and cordial affection of the Church generally, is attested by Halifax, Nov. 23, 1849.

MY DEAR SIR,—Our friend, Dr. Waddell, has shewn me your letter, conveying to him an offer of the situation of Superintendent over the Hospital in your Province. I have known the Doctor for many years intimately, and have the highest opinion of his integrity and fitness for such a situation, so far as regards his capacity and moral and social qualifications. To speak of his professional attainments, would be, in me, rather ex cathedra; but I know that he has very extensive practice in Colchester, and is widely and much esteemed. You may have every confidence that whatever he undertakes will be faithfully and accurately performed.

Very truly yours,
Hon. L. A. WILMOT. GEO. R. YOUNG.
