By His Excellency's Command.

J. R. PARTELOW.

Secretary's Office, 21st February, 1849.

PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENT.

MOSSES H. PERLEY, Esquire, to be Local Deputy for conducting the Sales of Crown Lands in the County of Saint John.

By His Excellency's Command.

J. R. PARTELOW.

Secretary's Office, 26th February, 1849.

The following Letter, conveying Pardons to five of the Woodstock Rioters, whose term of imprisonment has not yet expired, is published by authority:—

SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Fredericton, Feb. 28, 1849.

GENTLEMEN,—I am directed by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor to inform you that he is pleased to remit the remainder of the imprisonment to be undergone by the following persons in the Provincial Penitentiary, viz: George M'Donough, James M'Cann, Charles M'Ginley, James Fennegan, and John Mooney, severally convicted of a riot and assault at Woodstock in the County of Carleton.

His Excellency is of opinion, that the sentences passed on these offenders were just and merciful; but the Law has been vindicated, and the great object of all punishment in a civilized community, is to deter from crime, not to inflict vengeance. Under these circumstances, he feels that Her Most Gracious Majesty would desire the prerogative of the Crown to be exercised in such a manner as to exact no more than the public welfare absolutely demands. He regrets that the families of these men have participated in the suffering consequent on this offence; but the fact, that such is the inevitable result of crime, should deter from its commission, rather than be allowed to mitigate those penalties which the good of society requires to be enforced.

His Excellency has much satisfaction in remitting the remainder of these sentences, because he is satisfied that Her Majesty's mercy will be appreciated, and that all parties will abstain from conduct which may wantonly provoke an injury, or which may retaliate a supposed insult by a breach of the Peace.

I have, &c.

J. R. PARTELOW.

To John Ward, Esq., Chairman, and the Commissioners of the Prov. Penitentiary, St. John.
