EXHIBITION OF INDUSTRY OF ALL NATIONS.

TO BE HELD IN LONDON IN 1851.

INFORMATION FOR THE USE OF FOREIGN EXHIBITORS.

JULY 1850.

HER MAJESTY'S COMMISSIONERS for the promotion of the Exhibition of the Works of Industry of All Nations, to be holden in 1851, have fixed on the 1st day of May 1851, for opening the Exhibition.

The Commissioners will be prepared to receive all articles which may be sent to them, on and after the 1st of January 1851, and will continue so to receive goods until the 1st of March inclusive; after which day no further goods will be received.

Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant a site for this purpose, on the south side of Hyde Park, lying between the Kensington Drive and the Ride commonly called Rotten Row.

The Articles exhibited will be divided into Four Sections; and a Classified List, together with General Instructions affecting each Department, has been prepared.

The Building will be provided to the Exhibitors free from rent. The Productions of all Nations will be admitted.

Exhibitors will be required to deliver their objects, at their own charge and risk, at the Building in the Park, and Her Majesty's Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851 will make suitable arrangements for their reception, but no charges of any kind will be made whilst they remain there.

Colonial and Foreign productions will be admitted without paying duty, for the purposes of exhibition, but not for internal consumption. Her Majesty's Commissioners of Customs will consider all such Articles as Bonded Goods.

Any Manufacturer exhibiting Articles which can properly be placed together according to the classification already announced, will be at liberty to arrange such Articles in his own way; and his arrangements, if compatible with the convenience of other Exhibitors and of the Public, will not be disturbed. In like manner, if it is wished to exhibit together the productions of a particular town or district, nation or country, all such productions, if they can fairly be said to be of the same sort, will be admitted together. The decision whether they are so admissible or not, must of course rest in each case with the discretion of the Commissioners.

Where it is desired to exhibit processes of Manufacture, a sufficient number of Articles, however dissimilar, will be admitted for the purpose of illustrating the process; but they must not exceed what may be actually required.

In all cases where the productions of an individual are exhibited together, his wishes, with regard to the treatment of them, will be complied with as far as possible; but should they be of a nature to involve expense, the Commissioners cannot undertake to meet that expense out of their funds, but must call upon the Exhibitor to defray it himself. Glass cases, frames, and stands of peculiar construction, and similar contrivances for the display or protection of the goods exhibited, must in like manner be provided by the person requiring them at his own cost.

Exhibitors must be at the charge of insuring their own goods, should they desire this security. The Commissioners take this opportunity of stating that, however careful they may be in the construction of the Building, it will be quite impossible to erect one of the required dimensions which shall be absolutely fire-proof; and although every precaution will be taken to prevent fire, and to extinguish it, should it unfortunately occur, the Commissioners cannot be responsible for losses which may be occasioned by this, or any other accident whatever.

The Commissioners are prepared to take the greatest care in their power of all objects sent; but they are not prepared to incur a degree of responsibility unusual with regard to public Exhibitions. For this reason it has been already stated that Exhibitors must be at the charge of insuring their own goods, and that the Commissioners cannot be responsible for losses which may be occasioned by fire, or any other accident. They will spare no pains in making such police and other arrangements as may appear adequate for the protection of the Exhibition, and the security of the Articles exhibited. They will, of course, give all the aid in their power for the legal prosecution of all persons guilty of robbery or wilful injury of any of the Articles in the Exhibition, should such unfortunately occur in spite of the precautions which will be taken.

Should any Exhibitor desire to employ a servant of his own to preserve or keep in order the Articles he exhibits, or to explain them to visitors, he may do so after obtaining permission from the Commissioners. Such persons, however, will in all cases be forbidden to invite visitors to purchase the goods of their employers,
