BYE LAWS AND RULES OF THE PROVINCIAL LUNATIC ASYLUM.

ARTICLE I.

Patients.

Sec. 1.—That none but Lunatics proper shall be admitted as Patients.—That no mere Idiots shall be received except on clear proof that such Idiot being at large is dangerous, and that his admission be forthwith reported to the Lieutenant Governor, and sanctioned by him on a Medical Report.—That persons labouring under the temporary insanity of delirium tremens or its effects shall only be admitted as Patients on their board and attendance, at a rate not less than fifteen shillings per week, to be settled by the Medical Superintendent, being first paid or secured to the satisfaction of the Audit Committee.

Sec. 2.—That no female in a state of pregnancy shall be knowingly admitted as a Patient except on clear proof that such female being at large is dangerous, and that her admission be forthwith reported to the Lieutenant Governor, and sanctioned by him on a Medical Report—and should it be ascertained that any Patient admitted is pregnant, the Secretary shall immediately notify the relations or parties procuring her admission of the fact, and she shall, without delay, be removed by them before confinement; and that no infant shall be admitted with its insane mother, except in cases where payment shall be secured for the additional attendance and expense thereby occasioned.

Sec. 3.—That whenever an insane pauper shall be sent to the Asylum by any Parish, he or she shall be provided by such Parish at the time of admission with two full suits, complete, of strong and comfortable clothing.

Sec. 4.—That Patients shall be admitted to the Asylum as follows:—

First Class.—Paying Patients.

The relations or person in charge of the Patient shall produce to the Medical Superintendent a certificate from a qualified Physician or Surgeon that the party is unsafe, with all the particulars of the case, embracing age, occupation, the cause, character and duration of the insanity, habits of life, and previous medical or other treatment, so far as said particulars are known to or can be ascertained by the certifying Physician, and shall furnish with the Patient, (and during his continuance at the Asylum, a sufficiency of comfortable clothing,) and shall give security to the satisfaction of the Committee of Audit for the payment of the board of the
