JAMES ODELL.

Fredericton, February 12, 1850.

Died,

At the Wesleyan Mission House, Portland, on Saturday evening, after an illness of several weeks, the Rev. Sampson Busby, Superintendent Minister of the Saint John North Circuit, aged 59 years. Few men have left the world whose lives have been more blameless, or who have commanded to a large extent the confidence of those who knew them. For about 38 years Mr. Busby has laboured in various parts of the Province, occupying successively some of the most important stations; he was a man of integrity, singularly amiable in his disposition, and well adapted to the work of a christian minister. His name will long be held in grateful remembrance, not only by many who were added to the Church through his instrumentality, but by the communities with which his labours have at different periods been identified. He died as he had lived, at peace with God and all the world.
