PROVINCIAL APPOINTMENT.

WILLIAM NAPIER, of Bathurst, in the County of Gloucester, Esquire, to be Issuer of Marriage Licences, in the room of William End, Esquire, resigned.

By His Excellency's Command.

J. R. PARTELOW.

Secretary's Office, 19th Feb. 1850.

CIRCULAR.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Fredericton, 18th February, 1850.

SIR,—Some irregularities connected with the celebration of Marriage have been brought to the notice of His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, and he is desirous of calling your attention most seriously to the necessity which exists for the greatest care with reference to the forms to be observed.

1. You should be aware that if the Banns are not regularly published according to the provisions of the Act 31 Geo. 3, cap. 5, sec. 1, then a Licence, under the Hand and Seal of the Lieutenant Governor, should have issued and been placed in your hands, as your authority for the celebration of the Marriage. It is necessary to direct your attention to this point, inasmuch as for the future His Excellency will feel it his duty to direct proceedings, under the Act, for the penalty of £20 for each offence, to be taken against any person authorized to celebrate Marriage, who shall offend against its provisions in this respect.

2. You will observe that by the Act 22 Geo. 3, cap. 21, you are required, under a like penalty of £20, to transmit to the Clerk of the Peace, within two months after the celebration of any Marriage, a Certificate in the form annexed to this Letter, which Certificate the parties married are bound under the same penalty to sign. (See 52 G. 3, c. 21.)

I am therefore to desire that you will forthwith file with the Clerk of the Peace all Certificates of Marriage celebrated by you, and not yet registered; and it is the intention of His Excellency, in every instance which may be brought to his knowledge hereafter, to direct proceedings to be taken to enforce the provisions of the Provincial Acts, by the recovery of the Penalties imposed or prescribed therein.

I have, &c.

SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
Fredericton, 18th February, 1850.

SIR,—Certain irregularities which have occurred with reference to the issuing of Marriage Licences appear to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor to require that the attention of the persons entrusted with the issue of such Licences should be called to the necessity for the utmost caution in the exercise of their duty.

You are to bear in mind the fact, that the Licence is only a substitute for the publication of Banns, and that as the Banns must precede the Marriage, so the Licence ought in every case to be filled up and issued in a complete form before the celebration.

You are not authorized to demand or receive any Fee unless the Licence so filled up is delivered either before the receipt of the Fee or at the same time. The execution of the Bond never supplies the place of the Licence; nor is any authority, written or verbal, from the issuer of Marriage Licences, a sufficient substitute for the Licence itself.

You will, however, take care that the Bonds are duly executed and transmitted to this Office, as required by the Act 4 Wm. 4, cap. 46, sec. 5.

I have, &c.
