CAP. XXXII.

An Act in further amendment of the Law.

Passed 26th April 1850.

WHEREAS the practice of pleading several matters of defence to the 'same cause of action, frequently leads to great delay and expense, and tends more to defeat than to advance the cause of Justice ;'

Preamble.

I. Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council and Assembly, That the fourth section of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the fourth year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, intituled An Act for the amendment of the Law, and the better advancement of Justice, which has hitherto been considered in force in this Province, be and the same is hereby declared to be repealed and of no force or effect within this Province, any usage or practice to the contrary notwithstanding; provided always, and be it enacted, that the defendant in any action or suit brought against him as an Executor or Administrator, or the plaintiff or defendant in any action of replevin in any Court of Record in this Province, may plead as many matters thereto as he shall think necessary to his defence, in the same manner and subject to the same provisoes, costs and certificates as if this Act had not been made and passed.

Imperial Act
4 Anne, c 16,
repealed.

II. And be it enacted, That the defendant in any action in any Court of Record in this Province, (except actions of replevin, or where he is sued as Executor or Administrator,) may, in addition to any matter which may be by him pleaded in bar to such action, and put to issue for trial by a jury, give in evidence on the trial thereof any other matter of defence whatsoever; provided that notice of such other matter be given in writing to the plaintiff or his attorney, at the time of the delivery of the plea, (which notice may be proved on the trial to have been delivered either ore tenus or by affidavit of the person delivering the same); and provided also, that any such other matter of defence may, without any previous notice thereof, be met on the trial by evidence of any matter which might have been pleaded thereto by way of replication, in case such other matter had been pleaded, and so toties quoties by either party.

Executors or administrators as defendants, or plaintiff or defendant in any action of replevin, may plead as many matters as are necessary.

Defendant, except in actions of replevin or as executor or administrator, may give in evidence any matter of defence on notice.

And may be met on the trial by evidence of other matter pleadable by way of replication, when no notice has been given.

III. And be it enacted, That the defendant may be allowed either by the Court or any Judge thereof wherein the action is brought, to amend or add to such notice in like manner and upon the same terms as defendants can now by the practice of the Court be allowed to add or amend pleas.

Defendant may amend or add to notice.

IV. And be it enacted, That the notice of any such other matter of defence shall be in a general and brief form, and shall be deemed sufficient unless the plaintiff shall make it appear to the Court or Judge before whom the trial is had, that he has been misled by the defect or generality of such notice.

Notice to be in a brief form.

V. 'And whereas the insertion of several counts in the declaration for the same subject matter of complaint, often tends to unnecessary prolixity and expense ;'
