sioners; and when any Surveyor of Highways shall judge the use of wagons, carts, trucks, ploughs or harrows more necessary than the labour of men, in that case such Surveyor may call on any person or persons within the District keeping any wagon, cart, truck, plough or harrow, with two good oxen or two horses; which wagon, cart, truck, plough or harrow, with two good oxen or two horses, with a competent driver, shall be equal to four days labour.

XXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the respective Surveyors, on or before the tenth day of September in each and every year, to make and deliver to the Commissioner or Commissioners respectively, correct Returns of the Statute Labour performed in their respective Districts; which returns shall contain the names of all persons liable to perform Statute Labour within their respective Districts, with the number of days work performed by each person, and also the number of days for which any person may be delinquent.

XXII. And be it enacted, That every person when called upon by any one of the said Commissioners, shall within twenty four hours give and render to the said Commissioner a particular account and statement in writing, containing the names of all persons who may be in his, her or their employ, or who may be resident in the house kept or occupied by such person or persons, and who may be liable to perform labour on the Highways; such statement to contain not only the names of persons belonging to his, her or their family, but also the names of any boarders, lodgers, and domestic servants, who may be liable as aforesaid; and if any such person or persons shall neglect or refuse to render such account when so called upon, or shall give and render a false or incorrect account or statement, he or she shall forfeit or pay a sum not exceeding five pounds, to be sued for and recovered by any one of the Commissioners of the said Parish, before any one Justice of the Peace in and for the said County in which the said Parish is situate; and the penalty, when recovered, to be paid into the hands of the Commissioners, to be by them applied in making and repairing the Roads within the said Parish.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons when duly notified to labour by the Surveyors of their respective Districts, shall neglect or refuse to appear and labour agreeably to such notice, and shall also neglect to pay the sum of one shilling and three pence for each day's labour as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of such Surveyor, within six days after such neglect or refusal, to make report of such delinquency to some one of the Commissioners, who shall without delay make complaint in their own names to a Justice of the Peace, against every such delinquent, which Justice shall on conviction adjudge every such delinquent to pay the sum of two shillings for every day he has so neglected to appear and labour, together with costs of suit, to be levied by Warrant of distress and sale of such offender's goods and chattels under the hand and seal of such Justice, directed to any Constable of the Town or Parish to which such offender may belong; and in case no goods or chattels can be found, it shall and may be lawful to commit such offender to the common gaol of the County, for a space of time not exceeding six days; and if any person who shall appear agreeably to such notice, and being under the direction of such Surveyor, shall refuse or neglect to work, or shall not work in such manner as to satisfy such Surveyor, he is hereby empowered to dismiss such person from the work, and shall forthwith make complaint against him, to some one of the Commissioners, who shall immediately proceed against him in the same manner as is hereinbefore directed to be done against persons neglecting to appear and labour, after being duly notified; and the person so dismissed by such Surveyor for such delinquency shall be adjudged to pay the sum of two shillings for every day he shall have neglected or refused to work to the satisfaction of such Surveyor, agreeably to such notice, or be liable to imprisonment not exceeding six days, in the manner hereinbefore mentioned; provided that nothing in this Act contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to any City, Town, or Parish, for which special or local Acts relating to the Statute Labour are now in force.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That in case any person keeping any wagon, cart, truck, plough, or harrow, with two oxen or two horses, when called upon as aforesaid by such Surveyor, shall refuse or neglect to furnish such wagon, cart, truck, plough or harrow, with two oxen, or two horses, with a competent driver, agreeably to such direction of such Surveyor, it shall in like manner be the duty of such Surveyor forthwith to make complaint of such offender last mentioned, to some one of the Commissioners, who shall immediately proceed against him in the same manner as is directed in the last preceding section, and such offender last mentioned shall be adjudged to pay the sum of eight shillings for every day he shall have so neglected or refused to furnish such wagon, cart, truck, plough or har-
