

Security for Duties
may be changed
when the goods
have been sold.

50. If any goods shall have been warehoused in any warehouse and particular security, as in such case is required, shall have been given by the importer of such goods, in respect of the same, and such goods shall have been sold or disposed of, so that the original bonder shall be no longer interested in, or have control over such goods, it shall be lawful for the Treasurer, Deputy Treasurer or other authorized officer, to admit fresh security to be given by the Bond of the new proprietor of such goods, or person having control over the same, with two sufficient sureties, to be approved of by such officer, and to cancel the Bond given by the original bonder of such goods, or to exonerate him and his sureties to the extent of the fresh security so given; and so, in like manner, if any further transfer be made of the said goods, while in any warehouse, provided that all such goods be taken out of the Warehouse by payment of Duties or for exportation, within two years from the first entry thereof.

When transfer of warehoused goods
valid.

51. No transfer of any goods while remaining in any warehouse shall be valid until the new security authorized to be taken by this Act shall be given by the person to whom such transfer has been made, or by the person having control over the same.

Vessels bound for Fredericton to report at Saint John and take an officer on board.

52. The master or person in charge of any vessel, if laden, arriving inward at Saint John, and bound for Fredericton, shall make report of such vessel at the Treasurer's Office in Saint John, and shall, before proceeding up the River, take on board a Tide Waiter or other authorized officer, who shall remain on board until such vessel is duly entered at Fredericton; and any master or person who shall neglect or refuse so to make such report, or who shall proceed up the River without taking such officer on board, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred pounds.

Penalty.

Officer to be provided with sufficient room and food.

53. The master or person in charge of any such vessel, on board of which any officer is so stationed, shall provide every such officer sufficient room under the deck or some part of the forecastle or steerage, for his bed or hammock, and shall also provide such officer while so on board, with good and sufficient food; and in case of neglect or refusal so to do, shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten pounds.

Goods may be delivered from Warehouse to be shipped as ship
stores.

54. Any goods duly warehoused at any port or place within this Province, may be delivered out of such Warehouse to be shipped as stores for any ship or vessel of the burthen of fifty tons or upwards, bound on a voyage to any port or place out of this Province, the probable duration of which, out and home, will not be less than thirty days; provided always, that due proof on affidavit shall be made to the Treasurer, Deputy Treasurer or other authorized officer, by the master or owner of the ship or vessel, that the articles to be delivered are requisite and necessary for the voyage, and are actually intended therefor.

Permission may be granted to repack
goods in Warehouse.

55. It shall be lawful for the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer at any port or place in this Province to allow the owner of any goods duly warehoused, to sort, separate, pack and repack such goods, and to make such alterations therein or arrangements thereof as may be necessary either for the preservation of such goods, or in order to the sale, shipment or legal disposal of the same; provided always, that no alteration shall be made in any such goods or packages, except at such times and in such manner and under such regulations and restrictions as the Treasurer or Deputy Treasurer shall require and direct.

Breaking open or improperly getting access to Warehouse.

56. If any person or persons shall break open any Warehouse, or by any contrivance illegally and improperly gain access to any goods in any Warehouse established under the provisions of any Act or Acts of Assembly now or hereafter to be in force, every such offender shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and liable to fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the Court where such offender may be tried and convicted.

Penalty.

Drawbacks allowed on exportation of dutiable articles.

57. Whosoever shall export or carry out of this Province by sea, any articles chargeable with Provincial duty, and upon which, upon their entry inwards for home use, the Duties shall have been paid, or which may have been purchased at any Custom House sale, or sale of Government stores, shall be entitled to and shall be allowed a drawback or allowance of the whole amount of such Duties; provided that no drawback shall be allowed unless the goods upon which such drawback shall be claimed shall be of the value of not less than fifty pounds upon the first entry.

Landing goods
after report for exportation or shipment to obtain drawback.

58. If all or any of the articles reported for exportation without being landed, or which having been landed, have been shipped to obtain the drawbacks allowed by this Act, have been landed or relanded contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, all such articles so landed or relanded, and such as may be on board at the time of discovering such intended fraud, shall be forfeited, and shall and may be seized and prosecuted to condemnation, and the proceeds of Forfeiture.
