SAMUEL DENTON.

Canning, Queen's County, August 25, 1852.

We have much pleasure in publishing the following Correspondence between the Rev. Mr. Hartin, Missionary at the Howard Settlement, and the Gentlemen who represented a large number of the most respectable portion of our community. We believe the immediate cause of the sympathy manifested for the Rev. Gentleman was a severe accident which happened to him, attended with loss of property, on a journey to this place on clerical duties.—Carleton Sentinel.

Woodstock, September 7, 1852.

REV. AND DEAR SIR,—On behalf of the persons of whose names we enclose a list, we have respectfully to request your acceptance of a purse containing ten pounds. It is offered for your acceptance, with the view of, to some extent, reimbursing you for the loss you have sustained in your journey to this place, and is also intended to indicate the high respect with which your zealous and disinterested labours, as a Preacher of the Gospel, are here regarded.

With sincere wishes for your welfare and continued success as a Christian Minister,

We are, Rev. and Dear Sir, very faithfully yours,

EDWIN J. JACOB,

D. L. DIBBLEE.

REV. THOMAS HARTIN.

Woodstock, September 7, 1852.

GENTLEMEN,—I sincerely thank you and the other kind friends on whose behalf you appear, for the handsome donation you have just presented me.

I need not tell you how gratifying to my feelings is so unexpected a mark of the esteem in which my feeble efforts for the propagation of the Gospel are viewed by many in this place.

Gentlemen, I again thank you, and trust that my life and teaching may continue to merit your approbation.

I also sincerely hope that my earnest and humble endeavours to make the best use of such talents and opportunities as Almighty God has given me, may continue to call down his blessing on you and my labours.

I am, Gentlemen, yours most sincerely,
THOMAS HARTIN.

E. J. JACOB, Esq.

D. L. DIBBLEE, Esq. and others.
