The Committee of the Fredericton Dispensary beg to report to the Subscribers, that during the past year the Medical Officer has prescribed in more than 120 cases. By reference to the above account it will be seen, that the sum at the disposal of the Committee has been barely sufficient to defray the charges, for medicine and proper sustenance, in cases which deservedly claimed relief. The valuable services of Dr. Toldervy, which have been wholly gratuitous, merit the most grateful acknowledgment. The Committee beg to state, that much more alleviation of suffering might have been afforded by an increased amount of subscriptions. For an object so desirable—the affording the best medical advice and restoratives to a class of persons clearly deserving of sympathy—the Committee trust they will not appeal in vain to those who are blessed with health and abundance.

Contributions for the present year are earnestly solicited; and may be forwarded to the Secretary and Treasurer or to any member of the Committee. Tickets will be furnished to those Subscribers who request them.

Fredericton, February 8, 1853.
