Fredericton, December 10th, 1855.

UNION LINE OF STAGES

BETWEEN

ST. JOHN AND FREDERICTON.

THE Subscribers beg leave to inform their friends and the public that their Stages have commenced running for the Winter Season, and will leave St. John every TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY, at seven o'clock in the morning, and Fredericton every MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY, at the same hour.

Their Stages and Horses are of the best description, and as the Subscribers will drive their vehicles, passengers may depend upon safety and expedition by patronising their line, their long experience in driving being a sufficient guarantee therefor.

Stage Books will be kept at the Scammell Hotel, the Waverley House, and Stubbs' Hotel, St. John, and at the Barker House, York Hotel, and Segee's Hotel, in Fredericton. Passengers will be called for at their residences.

Parcels left at the Store of FLEWELLING & READING, in Dock Street, will be carried at moderate rates, and every care taken to ensure their safety and careful delivery.
