The Honorable the Attorney General, upon the Judges taking their seats, rose, and after a few preliminary remarks, moved the Court that the following Resolution be entered upon the Minutes:—

"Resolved, That the Bar, at this first Term after the death of the Honorable George Frederick Street, late Justice of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature of this Province, do make this public expression of their deep respect for his ability, industry and integrity as a Judge, and his usefulness as a member of society, and unanimously agree to go into mourning during the Term."

His Honor the Chief Justice, in reply to the Honorable the Attorney General, said—

"We receive with much satisfaction the Resolution of the Bar relative to the loss which the Bench has recently sustained by the death of our highly esteemed and deeply lamented brother, Mr. Justice Street, and we fully appreciate the proposed mark of respect to his memory. We are satisfied that our feeling is not confined to the Bench; that in all the various public relations by which, during a long life, he was bound to this Province, his career was universally marked by a kind and courteous demeanour, and a faithful and laborious discharge of every duty. We who have been associated with him on the Bench for many years, shall always hold his memory in affectionate respect, and we believe the same feeling will remain with the Bar, of which he was so long a prominent and successful member. We gladly accede to the motion of the Attorney General to have this Resolution entered in the Minutes of the Court."
