

shall be on the passing of this Act fully and absolutely vested and remain in the Trustees hereinbefore named and their successors for ever, for the exclusive use, trust, and benefit aforesaid, saving the rights of such present Trustees and of Her Majesty, and other persons, bodies corporate and politic, or other claims or rights whatsoever.

3. On the third Wednesday of January in each year for ever hereafter, a meeting of the persons then being proprietors of pews, seat-renters, or male communicants, shall be holden in the said Church; at which meeting, between the hours of twelve of the clock noon and three of the clock in the afternoon, an election shall be made to be determined by a majority of such pew-holders, seat-renters, and male communicants then present, of not less than three nor more than nine persons being pew-holders, seat-renters, or communicants, to be Trustees of the said Church, who shall forthwith on the completion of such election enter upon the duties of their office, and continue in the same until other fit persons shall be elected in manner aforesaid.

4. The Trustees in their several and respective Churches already erected within this Province, and also of all Churches which may be hereafter erected in connexion with the Presbyterian Church of Nova Scotia, (the Trustees of which are hereby incorporated) shall when elected in manner and form as directed by this Act be bodies politic and corporate in deed and in name, and have succession for ever by the name of the Trustees of the several and respective Churches to which they belong; and then this Act and every direction and authority herein contained shall extend and be in force in all such Churches in the same manner as if the same direction and authority were particularly re-enacted and applied to such Churches respectively.
