FUND FOR THE RELIEF OF THE SUFFERERS BY THE MUTINY IN INDIA.

Mansion House, October, 1857.

SIR,—The disastrous events which have occurred in our Indian Territory will already have come to your knowledge. You are also probably aware that a movement has originated in London, which is being seconded with great zeal and liberality throughout this Kingdom, for the relief of those, both at home and abroad, who are sufferers by this Mutiny, and by the sanguinary War to which it has given rise.

We cannot doubt that our fellow-subjects over whom your influence extends, as the Representative of the British Government, must sympathize most deeply with the fallen and the bereaved; and that they will feel with us the binding obligation under which, as a nation, we are laid, to alleviate their afflictions and to compensate their wrongs.

Entertaining this conviction, I beg, in the name of the Central Committee in London, most earnestly to request your kind co-operation. We are convinced that you will feel it alike a duty and a pleasure to adopt immediate measures for the augmentation of the Relief Fund, which we are labouring to raise, and which we are commissioned to distribute.

I beg to enclose to you some documents which we respectfully request you to circulate, and which will afford to some extent the necessary information, both as to the emergency of the case, and as to the principles which will guide the Relief Committee at home in the distribution of those funds, which the humanity of their fellow-countrymen may place at their disposal.

Let me beg you to originate immediate measures for obtaining Congregational and general subscriptions, and to transmit the amounts contributed to the Bank of England, to the credit of the Indian Mutiny Relief Fund.

I have, &c.

(Signed) THOMAS Q. FINNIS.

His Excellency the Lieut. Governor, &c. &c. &c.,
New Brunswick.
