

On Monday last, a Deputation of the Synod of the Presbyterian Church in this Province, in connexion with the Established Church of Scotland, waited, by appointment, upon His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, and presented the following Address:—

To His Excellency the Honorable John Henry Thomas Manners-Sutton, Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

We, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbyterian Church of New Brunswick, in connexion with the Church of Scotland, in Synod assembled, avail ourselves of this, our first meeting at the Seat of Government since your arrival in the Province, to approach Your Excellency—the Representative of our Gracious Sovereign—with the assurance of our highest respect, and cordial wishes for your personal welfare, and for your success in the discharge of those high functions entrusted to you by Her Majesty.

We beg Your Excellency to be assured of our devoted loyalty to the British Throne, and of our steadfast attachment to those Institutions—the birthright of every British subject—by which liberty and happiness are most effectually secured: and it is pleasing to us to think that, in this our adopted country, we live under the protection of British laws, and enjoy, to so large an extent, the benefit of British Institutions.

As Ministers in connexion with the national Church of Scotland, it has ever been our endeavour, as we feel it to be our duty, while, first and above all, inculcating obedience to Him by whom Kings reign, to teach the people among whom we labour a respectful submission to all constituted authorities, as enjoined, not only by the laws of man, but by those of God.

We have ever felt a deep interest in the promotion of a sound, moral and religious education among all classes of the people,—an interest which, we have the pleasure of knowing, is not less warmly felt by Your Excellency: and we earnestly hope that some measure for improving our Parish Schools, and especially for placing King's College on a more satisfactory footing, and thereby securing for it the confidence of the community at large, may soon be adopted by the Legislature of this Province.

That Almighty God, from whom cometh down every good and perfect gift, may ever bless Your Excellency, the Honorable Mrs. Manners-Sutton, and your youthful family, with all temporal and spiritual blessings, and, finally, make you all partakers of His heavenly kingdom, is our ardent wish and fervent prayer.

Signed in name, in presence, and by appointment of the Synod of New Brunswick, in connexion with the Church of Scotland, at Fredericton, this twenty fifth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty seven years, by PETER KEAY, Moderator.

To which His Excellency made the following Reply:—

GENTLEMEN:

As the Representative of our Most Gracious Queen, I thank you heartily for this expression of your attachment to the Throne. For myself and for my Family, I request you to accept, and to convey to those whom you represent, my warmest acknowledgments for your wishes for our personal welfare and happiness.

Deeply impressed with the conviction that nothing but evil can flow from neglecting the training and education of the younger portion of the Community, I should view with heartfelt satisfaction the adoption of any measures which would tend to improve the state of the Parochial Schools, and to afford to all classes of the People increased facilities for acquiring instruction in the higher branches of learning.

I assure you, Gentlemen, of my perfect confidence in the sincerity of your endeavours to provide for the religious instruction of the Members of your Church, and to foster among them a spirit of loyalty to the Crown, and of obedience to the law. It is my earnest prayer that Providence may bless your exertions.
