

Care has been taken to prevent imposition, and to confine the relief to that class of sufferers contemplated by this institution. The Committee feel assured that in no other way could the same amount be made to afford so much alleviation of actual suffering.

Contributions for the present year are earnestly solicited; and may be forwarded to the Secretary and Treasurer or to any Member of the Committee. Tickets will be furnished to those Subscribers who request them.

Subscriptions to the Fredericton Dispensary for the year ending February 1, 1858.
