

Government or subjects of any other Colony, or to investigate or enquire into the management or affairs of any public institution in this Province, shall be capable of being elected or of sitting in the House of Assembly; and any Member of the Assembly accepting any such office or appointment shall forthwith vacate his Seat, and be incapable of re-election while holding such appointment, and his Seat as such Member is, on the acceptance of any such appointment, hereby declared vacant.

4. That this Act shall not extend to Members of the Executive Council.

5. That this Act shall take effect immediately upon the passing thereof, except that it shall not during the term of the present House apply to any officer named in the first section, now being a Member of the General Assembly, nor to any Member of the House by reason of his now being a contractor under the Government, or having an interest in any contract, or to any Member who is now surety for any Contractor, or to any Member in the third Section who may have already been appointed by the Government, and the duties of whose appointment are not yet concluded.

6. That this Act shall not come into operation or be in force until Her Majesty's Royal approbation be thereunto first had and declared.

[This Act was specially confirmed, ratified, and finally enacted, by an Order of Her Majesty in Council dated the thirteenth day of November 1858.]
