EXAMINATIONS FOR THE CIVIL SERVICE OF INDIA.

REGULATIONS.

1. In July 1859, an Examination of Candidates will be held in London. Forty Candidates will be selected, if so many shall be found duly qualified. Of these twenty five will be selected for the Presidency of Bengal, eight for that of Madras, and seven for that of Bombay. Notice will hereafter be given of the days and place of Examination.

2. Any natural-born subject of Her Majesty, who shall be desirous of entering the Civil Service of India, will be entitled to be examined at such Examination, provided he shall, on or before the 1st May 1859, have transmitted to the Civil Service Commissioners, Dean's Yard, London, S. W.

(a) A certificate of his birth, showing that his age on the 1st May 1859, will be above eighteen years and under twenty three years.

(b) A certificate, signed by a Physician or Surgeon, of his having no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity, unfitting him for the Civil Service of India.

(c) Satisfactory proof of good moral character.

(d) A statement of those of the branches of knowledge herein after enumerated in which he desires to be examined.

3. In any case in which a doubt may arise as to the eligibility of a Candidate in respect of age, health, or character, such inquiries as may be necessary will be instituted by the Civil Service Commissioners.

4. The Examination will take place only in the following branches of knowledge:—

	Marks.
English Language and Literature—

5. The merit of the persons examined will be estimated by marks, and the numbers set opposite to each branch in the preceding regulation denote the greatest number of marks that can be obtained in respect of it.

6. No Candidate will be allowed any marks in respect of any subject of examination, unless he shall be considered to possess a competent knowledge of that subject.

7. The examination will be conducted by means of printed questions and written answers, and by viva voce examination, as may be deemed necessary.

8. The marks obtained by each Candidate, in respect of each of the subjects in which he shall have been examined, will be added up, and the names of the forty Candidates who shall have obtained a greater aggregate number of marks than any of the remaining Candidates, will be set forth in order of merit, and such Candidates shall be deemed to be selected Candidates for the Civil Service of India. They shall be permitted to choose, according to the order in which they stand, as long as a choice remains, the Presidency to which they shall be appointed.

9. In July 1860, a further examination of the selected Candidates will take place in the following subjects:—

1. { Sanscrit -	500
