

to the appellants any money that may have been paid by such appellants or may be due from them as Overseers, on account of such poor person, between the time of the undue removal and the determination of the appeal.

12. The Overseers of the Poor may in all cases, if they judge it expedient, previous to any application to a Justice of the Peace, send a written notification, stating the facts relating to any person actually become chargeable or applying for relief from such Parish, to one or more Overseers of the Poor of the place where his settlement is supposed to be, and requesting them to remove him, which they may do by a written order directed to any person therein designated, who is hereby authorized to execute the same.

13. Every Parish shall be liable to pay any expense which shall necessarily be incurred for the relief of a Pauper by any person who is not liable for his support, after notice and request made to the Overseers of the Poor of the Parish, and until provision shall be made for them; provided that in every such case, when disputed by such Overseers, the expenses so incurred shall be laid before the General Sessions of the County, who shall examine into the circumstances and determine whether any and what amount should be paid by such Overseers to the person so giving such relief, and such amount so determined shall then be recovered from such Overseers in like manner as is provided by the ninth Section of this Act.

THE ALBION.

THE "ALBION," having been in existence more than one third of a century, is widely known throughout the British North American Provinces and the United States, as a thoroughly independent Journal. Its pages are largely occupied with the cream of English Periodical Literature, and the best criticisms furnished by the press. To these are added such notices of the current events of the day, as are deemed to be of interest to a circle of intelligent readers. The whole furnishes, it is believed, a valuable weekly budget of information and entertainment. It is published every Saturday morning in the City of New York.

PREMIUM ENGRAVINGS.

Subscribers on payment of the annual subscription, (six dollars) are entitled to one of the engravings issued annually and expressly for their use.

The Presentation Plate for 1859, (General Havelock,) is considered superior to any engraving hitherto issued, and is worth nearly the price of a year's subscription. It is executed in the highest style of art.

Persons wishing to take the Albion can apply direct to the publishers, or through any respectable Bookseller in the Province. Those in Fredericton, or its vicinity, are requested to leave their names with Mr. S. R. Miller, who will order for them.
