DIOCESAN CHURCH SOCIETY.

Fredericton, March 15, 1859.

REV. AND DEAR BRETHREN,

At the late Meeting of the General Committee of the Diocesan Church Society, holden in Saint John, it was decided by a majority of at least three fourths of the Members present, that the Annual Meetings of the Society should be held in the beginning of July, instead of in January, or February, as heretofore. As the next Annual Meeting will be held in Fredericton, in the coming month of July, I wish now to apprise you of it, and to request you to do your best to make a collection, that the half-yearly payments due to the Missionaries, with the other necessary expenses, may be met. What proportion of their subscriptions you will be able to obtain from the Members of the Society, it is impossible to ascertain; but I trust you will exert yourselves to obtain a sufficient sum to enable the Society to meet its engagements, and that you will remit the sum obtained to the Treasurer in the month of June next.

I am, Rev. and Dear Brethren,
Your faithful Friend and Brother,

JOHN FREDERICTON.

To the Clergy of the Church of England in the Province of New Brunswick.
