

and regulations shall be entrusted to such and so many Constables of the County in which the exhibition is held, as may be selected for that purpose by the Committee appointed by the Provincial Board to superintend the said exhibition.

4. Notwithstanding the provisions of the second Section of the said last mentioned recited Act, any member of the Provincial Board previously elected or appointed, shall continue a member until the time appointed for holding the annual meeting, when any other person elected in his place shall be deemed to be constituted a member.

5. Notwithstanding the provisions of the fifth Section of the last mentioned recited Act, the members of the Provincial Board shall be annually elected on the third Wednesday in October, between the hours of twelve o'clock noon, and three o'clock in the afternoon, at the County Court House in each County, except King's, where the election shall be held at the Finger Board House, in the Parish of Norton; and Albert, the election shall be held at the Post Office at Hopewell Hill, (so called,) in the said County, in such manner and subject to such regulations as the Agricultural Society shall prescribe; if there be more than one Society in any County, the President, first Vice President, and Secretary of the several Societies, shall meet at the same time and place and elect the member; persons entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy in writing; the Chairman of the meeting shall on or before the last day of December then next, transmit the result of the election to the Secretary of the Provincial Board, who shall immediately notify the members elected and also the retiring member.

6. Notwithstanding the provisions of the first mentioned recited Act, passed in the seventeenth year of the Reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled An Act for the encouragement of Agriculture, two or more Societies may unite and form one Society, and when so united shall be a body corporate, with all the privileges and obligations made incident to a Corporation by Law, by the name of the Agricultural Society of the Counties of [describe the several Counties which have so united]; such union shall not affect the right of each County so united, to elect at the time and place specified in this Act, a member of the Provincial Board, under such regulations as to the mode each Society shall adopt, to be regulated by a bye law of such Society, or entitle any County so included in such union, to a greater sum than each such County would be entitled to receive from the Provincial Treasury, and the corporate character of such united Counties shall be proved in the same manner as is provided in the case of a single Society.

7. All the provisions of the said recited Acts inconsistent with this Act, are hereby repealed; but in all other respects the said recited Acts shall remain in full force and effect.

CAP. XLVII.

An Act to amend an Act to regulate the qualification of Practitioners in Medicine and Surgery, and to provide a Medical Council of Health in the Province of New Brunswick.

Section.

1. Appointment of Registrar and his acts legalized.
2. Construction of sec. 11, 22 V. c. 18.

Section.

3. Practitioners in Homœopathy entitled to Registration; limitation.

Passed 9th April 1860.

WHEREAS by the third Section of an Act made and passed in the twenty second year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, Chapter XVIII, it is amongst other things enacted that a Faculty, styled the Medical Faculty of New Brunswick, should be established, consisting of all persons registered under the said Act, who should hold their first meeting within six months from commencement of said Act, and in such place and at such time as the Governor in Council should appoint: And whereas by the sixth section of the said Act it is enacted that the Governor in Council should, as soon as it might be convenient after the passing of the said Act, appoint one or more Registrars who should act as such, in accordance with the provisions thereof, until the first meeting of the Medical Council: And whereas the second Section of the said Act provides that the said Act should not come into operation until the first day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty nine: And whereas William J. Harding was on the sixth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty nine, appointed Registrar under the said Act, by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council: And whereas doubts exist as to the proper and legal construction of the said in part recited Act;—

Be it enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. That the said appointment of Registrar so made as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken to be valid and lawful to all intents and purposes, in like manner as if made after the said Act came into operation, as well as all acts or things done by such Registrar or transacted in connection with or dependent upon a proper appointment of such Registrar; provided that this Act shall not extend to any suit brought against the said Registrar for any act done or omitted by him as such Registrar.

2. That the proper construction and intent of the eleventh Section of the said Act, is to entitle all persons possessed of a Medical Degree, Diploma, or Licence, as therein set forth, to registration under said Act, without distinction of Medical or Surgical system of practice taught in any such College or public Institution mentioned in the said eleventh Section of the said Act.

3. That any person now practising or who may hereafter wish to practise Homœopathy in this Province, and possessed of a Diploma from a Homœopathic College, and claiming registration under it, shall be entitled to be registered under the eleventh section of the said Act, and be designated on the register as a practitioner of Homœopathy; provided however, that such registration shall not entitle any person to assume or use the designation of Surgeon, or Doctor of Medicine, unless he shall have been registered as such on the register of the Medical Faculty.

CAP. XLVIII.

An Act relating to the mode of Accounting and Currency.

Section.

1. Public Accounts to be rendered in dollars and cents.
2. Equivalent for parts of a cent to be fixed by Governor in Council.
3. Eagle of United States, tender for $10.
4. Dollar divisible into 100 cents; cent into 10 mills.
5. Certain silver coins struck by order of Her Majesty to be legal tender;

Section.

6. Also copper or bronze coins similarly struck.
7. Act not to affect power of Governor under 15 V. c. 85.
8. Subject to this Act, Act 15 V. c. 85, to be in force.
9. Commencement of Act.