

Exhibitions; provided that all the Statutes, Rules and Ordinances now in force, according to law, in the said College and School, shall continue in force, except so far as they may be inconsistent with the spirit and provisions of this Act, until repealed and altered by the Senate:

5th. To appoint and to remove from time to time, subject to the approval of the Governor in Council, the Professors, Tutors, Lecturers, and Instructors, and all other Officers and Servants of the University, and the Masters, Teachers, and Servants of the Collegiate School, and to prescribe their duties, and fix their remuneration; provided that all appointments in King's College and School shall remain until revoked or altered under the provisions of this Act:

6th. To confer Degrees in Arts, Law, and Medicine, to-wit: The several Degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Bachelor of Laws, Doctor of Laws, Bachelor of Medicine, and Doctor of Medicine, and Diplomas in Civil Engineering and Land Surveying, Agriculture, Commerce, and Navigation, and such honorary degrees and certificates of honor, merit, and attendance at Lectures, as the Senate may adjudge expedient and proper.

9. It shall be the duty of the President of the University—

1st. To see that all the Statutes, Rules and Ordinances relating to the University and Collegiate School are duly enforced, and to rectify any deviation therefrom; and at all times to exercise a parental care and supervision over the Students:

2nd. To see that comfortable board and lodging are provided for such Students as may require the same:

3rd. To preside at all meetings of the Senate when present, and to call a special meeting at such time as he may think necessary, by giving due notice thereof to each member of the Senate:

4th. To visit from time to time the Classes and other University departments, and to give such directions and perform such acts generally, as shall in his judgment be necessary for the interest of the University, so that they do not contravene this Act, nor the Statutes, Rules, Ordinances, nor the decisions of the Senate:

5th. To preside at all examinations, and at all meetings of the Senate, when practicable, and to sign all Diplomas for Degrees, and other Diplomas and certificates of honor:

6th. To report to the Senate, as occasion may require, concerning the state and discipline of the University, and to prepare and lay before the Senate for consideration, such regulations touching the discipline and government of the University and Collegiate School, as he may deem advisable for their future prosperity:

7th. To grant to the Students leave of absence from the University for reasonable cause, and for such length of time as he shall judge the occasion may require:

8th. To have charge of the buildings and grounds of the University and Collegiate School, and to see that they are kept in good order and repair:

9th. To prepare a full and particular report annually of the Educational state of the University and School, according to such form as may be prescribed by the Senate.

10. The senior Professor, in the absence of President, shall have the same authority to command obedience, and to enforce the discipline of the University, as the President.

11. There shall be a University Board, to consist of the President and Professors, which shall have power to try offences committed by the Students, to determine the relative standing of Students, and to adjudge rewards and punishments; and the concurrence of the President shall be necessary to every act of the Board.

12. In the absence of the President, the senior Professor present shall preside at the meeting of the Board, and no acts of the Board thus constituted shall be valid, until approved of by the President.

13. The Board shall meet at least once in every week during Term, in the University Library, for the purpose of administering the general discipline of the University; and at such stated meetings the Professors shall report respecting the conduct and proficiency of the Students, noting particularly those who have been delinquents in their behaviour or attendance, or deficient or negligent in their preparation or duties.

14. The Board shall keep a Book of Minutes of their proceedings, and there shall be noted therein at every meeting, the names of members present or absent; and such Book shall be laid before the Senate at all general or special meetings.

15. Every candidate for matriculation is required to produce at the time of his examination, a written statement from his parents or guardians, or other person having charge of his education, setting forth the name of some Minister of Religion in or near Fredericton, under whose religious instruction he is to be placed; and in order to the keeping and allowance of any Term, every Student must produce a certificate from his religious instructor, for the time being, that he has regularly attended Divine Service on Sundays during such Term, unless prevented by unavoidable circumstances.

16. Portions of the Holy Scriptures shall be read by the President, or one of the Professors, daily in the University, and Morning and Evening Prayers offered according to the form prescribed by the Senate, and at such times as shall be appointed for that purpose; and all resident Students shall be required to attend such Scripture readings and Prayers, except those whose parents or guardians, or other person having charge of his or their education, may have signified to the contrary in writing to the President.

17. In order to extend the benefits of establishments already instituted, or which may be hereafter instituted in this Province, for the promotion of the study of Literature, Science, Art, Law, or Medicine, whether incorporated or not, by connecting them for such purpose with the University, all persons shall be admitted as candidates for the respective degrees and diplomas mentioned in the sixth part of the eighth Section of this Act, to be conferred by the University, on satisfying the members of the Senate, by proper certificates, that such persons have in any of the said Institutions gone through such course of instructions as the Senate shall from time to time determine, or as may be prescribed by this Act; and the Institutions in which such course of instruction may be completed, shall be such Institutions as now are or shall hereafter be established for the promotion of Education within this Province, which the Lieutenant Governor in Council shall from time to time designate to the Senate.

18. Any person may, on application to the President, and on payment of the fees required, and observance of the regulations prescribed, be admitted to attend any one or more courses of Lectures in the University, and receive certificates accordingly.

19. There shall be admitted into the general undergraduate course in the University, free of all charges of fees for education, the following number of Students from each and every County in the Province, upon their respectively passing the required examination, and upon producing satisfactory testimonials that they are well deserving of such gratuitous instruction:—
