No. 3.—The following Form of Requisition for Arms and Accoutrements to be observed, viz:—

Required for the service of the Company in my Battalion volunteering for drill and exercise:

No. of Rifles (say 60, or No. of men in the Company.)

No. of sets of Accoutrements, do. do.

(Signed) A. B. Lieut. Col.

[Bond herewith.] Com. — Batt. — County Militia.

His Excellency will be prepared, on the Requisition of the Officer commanding the Regiment or Battalion, to issue for the use of each Company volunteering for drill and exercise, a sufficient supply of Ammunition. (Blank Cartridge for Drill and Ball Cartridge for Practice.)

Competent Instructors for Drill will also be provided on application to the Commander in Chief.

No. 4.—His Excellency issues no order with regard to the Uniform of the Companies volunteering for drill and exercise, and while he suggests that an inexpensive, easy-fitting, and serviceable Uniform be adopted, (a dark gray has been proved to be the best colour for light troops.) His Excellency, desirous to meet the wishes of the Companies volunteering, will be prepared to receive suggestions on the subject from the Officers commanding their respective Battalions.

By Command.

R. HAYNE, Lieut. Col.

Adj. Genl. of Militia.
