

trusts for which the said real and leasehold property so sold were devised and bequeathed and held by the said Trustees under the said Will.

3. All sales under this Act shall be at public auction, and not less than sixty days notice thereof shall be given, by publishing the same in a newspaper printed in the said County, and by handbills in at least three public places in the Parish where the lands to be sold are situate.

4. All deeds and conveyances of the said lands and premises, or any part or parts thereof, duly executed under the Seal of the said Corporation, proved and registered according to the laws of this Province, shall be sufficient to pass to the purchaser or purchasers of the lands in such deeds or conveyances described, all the estate and title which the said John Harkins at the time of his death, and which the said Corporation at the date of such deeds or conveyances had in and to such lands and premises; and such deeds and conveyances so executed, proved, and registered, shall be prima facie evidence that the same lands were regularly advertised and sold as required by the provisions of this Act.

5. The legal and equitable rights of all persons claiming under the provisions in the Will of the said John Harkins, are hereby reserved.

An Act in amendment of and in addition to An Act to incorporate the York and Carleton Mining Company.

Section.

1. Act 10 V. c. 73, s. 4, repealed.
2. Joint stock and property alone responsible for the debts.

Section.

3. Act voidable on non-fulfilment of specified conditions.

Passed 12th April 1861.

WHEREAS the existing individual liability of the shareholders of the capital stock of the York and Carleton Mining Company for the debts and engagements of said Company, as enacted in the fourth section of the Act of incorporation thereof, passed in the tenth year of the Reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, and intituled An Act to incorporate the York and Carleton Mining Company, has tended to prevent the investment of capital in the said Company, and thereby greatly to limit its operations and usefulness;—

BE it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. That the said fourth section of the said Act of incorporation shall be and remain in force, and shall apply to such only, of the debts, contracts, engagements, and liabilities of the
