

Officers commanding Companies are directed to make application to the Adjutant General for their respective allowances of Ammunition, in strict accordance with the foregoing Regulations.

R. HAYNE, A. G. M.

No. 4.

July 9, 1861.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant Governor in Council offers for competition to each Company of Militia volunteering for Drill and Exercise, a Silver Medal, to be fired for under the following Regulations, at such times (on or before the 1st September next,) and places as the Commanding Officers of the respective Companies may see fit.

1st.—The number of Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men competing for this Prize, must not be less than two thirds of the strength of the Company to which they belong.

2nd.—There will be three Ranges, at each of which the competitors will be allowed three shots. The ranges may be fixed by the Officers commanding Companies, but the minimum distance must be 200 yards.

3rd.—The names of the successful competitors must be transmitted to the Adjutant General before the 10th September next; and in order that His Excellency the Commander in Chief may be enabled to judge of the general and the comparative merits of the shooting, Officers commanding Companies are directed to send at the same time Target Practice Returns of the days of competition.

4th.—Officers commanding Companies are to understand that the Ammunition to be expended on the day of competition, is to be taken from the allowance granted in the General Order of the 8th instant.

R. HAYNE, A. G. M.

(No. 5.)

July 10, 1861.

HIS Excellency the Commander in Chief, with a view to the good of the service, directs that all Officers commanding Battalions or Regiments of Militia, whether of Cavalry, Artillery, or Infantry, will henceforward in their Letters recommending the promotion of Captains to Majorities in their respective corps, at the same time report on the efficiency of the officers so recommended for the grade of Field Officer.

By Command.

R. HAYNE, Lt. Col.

Ad. Gen. of Militia.
