BY AUTHORITY.

By His Excellency The Honorable ARTHUR HAMILTON GORDON, C. M. G., Lieut. Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

ARTHUR H. GORDON.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the General Assembly of this Province stands prorogued to Thursday the twelfth day of December next, I have thought fit further to prorogue the said General Assembly to Thursday the sixteenth day of January next, and the same is hereby prorogued accordingly.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Fredericton, the third day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty one, and in the twenty fifth year of Her Majesty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command.

R. FULTON, Assistant Secretary.

GOVERNMENT NOTICE.

ALL Persons who intend to apply to the Legislature during the next Session for Grants of Money, are requested to transmit a copy of their Petitions to the Office of the Provincial Secretary, on or before the 1st of February next.

R. FULTON, Assistant Secretary.
Secretary's Office, 26th Dec. 1861.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Saint John, 4th January, 1862.

GENERAL ORDER.

HIS Excellency the Commander in Chief desires to convey to Lieutenant Colonel Thurgar, Saint John City Rifles, his deep sense of the valuable and highly efficient services rendered by himself, and the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Volunteers under his command, during the disembarkation of the Troops on the 3rd instant.

The good discipline, activity and zeal displayed by the Volunteers on that occasion, met with the warmest approbation of Major General Rumley, under whose orders the Troops were disembarked; and that Officer has requested His Excellency to express his thanks to Lieutenant Colonel Thurgar, and the Volunteers, for their loyal and kindly welcome.

His Excellency the Commander in Chief also desires to convey to Lieutenant Colonel Gray, Queen's New Brunswick Rangers, and the Volunteers under his command, who undertook the duties of Guard and Sentry over the buildings placed at His Excellency's disposal for temporary Barracks, his hearty appreciation of the zeal and energy displayed by them.

The steady discipline, soldierlike appearance, and uncomplaining performance of very arduous duties during the inclement weather of the past week, was all that could be desired, and reflects the highest credit on both Officers and Volunteers.

His Excellency cannot omit to notice the admirable manner in which the ground was kept by the Volunteers during the time the Troops were being disembarked; nor can His Excellency too highly commend the spirit which prompted Captain Howard and his Company to come so long a distance to take their share in the reception of Her Majesty's Troops.

By Order.

J. ROBINSON, Lt. Col., Adj. Gen. Militia.
