

11. No net for the catch of any kind of fish shall be set at Tracadie South Gully, commonly called Young's Gully, below Daniel Cobb's lower line, towards Peter Ferguson's at the opposite side; and no such net shall be set on the northern side of the same Gully, below Thistle Point and John McLaughlin's shore, opposite his house on the other side, under a penalty against the owner of such net of eight dollars a day and forfeiture of the net.

12. No net whatever shall be set nor any seine or drift-net used in any way to impede or obstruct the free passage of fish into the Grand Lake, so called, at Shippegan Island, under a penalty of twenty dollars.

13. From henceforth between the first day of July and the first day of November in each and every year, no net for the catch of Herrings or any other fish, shall be moored or anchored on any bank or shore, or any part of any bank or shore in the Bay Chaleur, situate between Mizonette Point and Point Miscou: All nets used upon these banks, or any part of them, shall be fastened to boats or other craft, and not otherwise, under a penalty of twenty dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered, with costs of suit, from the owner or owners, setter or setters, or person or persons in charge of such nets, or in default of payment, of ten days imprisonment in the common gaol of the County of Gloucester; and all nets found moored or anchored contrary to this Regulation, shall be seized and removed, with all their contents, by one of the Wardens of the Fisheries, or the officer lawfully superintending the same; and such Warden or Officer shall advertise the nets so seized for the space of six clear days, in three or more public places in the Parish of Carquet, in the County of Gloucester; and if the same are not claimed, and the penalty, costs and expenses paid before the expiration of that time, he shall sell the same by public auction, to the highest bidder; and the proceeds arising from such sale shall be paid into the Provincial Treasury to the credit of the Fishery Protection Account.

14. No Oysters shall be taken in any River or Harbour in the County of Gloucester at any time between the first day of June and the first day of September in any year, under a penalty of twenty dollars for each and every offence.

By His Excellency's Command.

Secretary's Office, 27th May, 1863.
