On Sunday evening last, at 7 o'clock, JOHN SIMPSON, Esquire, Queen's Printer, for nearly 34 years Proprietor and Publisher of this Paper, died at his residence in this city, aged 68 years.

This event has deprived the community of one of its most valuable citizens. The poor—the widow—and the fatherless, have lost a kind and generous friend—his widow, a devoted partner—his family a loving and affectionate Parent—the Public a faithful officer,—and his Staff of Workmen and Apprentices, an Employer and a Master beloved by them all.

In all the varied offices he has been called to fill, he has performed his duty to the best of his ability, and with a ready mind.

Whether as Captain of a Volunteer Company, Mayor of the City, Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, or Queen's Printer, his constant aim was to do his duty and to do it well.

He spared no expense in order to have his Office well provided with the most competent workmen and the very best materials for the Public Service,—and how well he succeeded in doing that work, the Volumes of Province Laws, the Legislative Journals, and all other work executed at his Office will show,—as they can compare most favorably with the same kind of work in any part of the Empire.

He united himself with the Wesleyan Church before he left his native country, and has always been a liberal contributor towards its support in this City.

For some time past he had frequently intimated his opinion that he was drawing near his end; and resting alone on the "finished work" of Redeeming love, he enjoyed that peace of mind which the world cannot give; and when, in his last moments, he felt that the hand of death was upon him,—hopefully—peacefully—and triumphantly—he exclaimed "all's well," and fell asleep in Jesus.

At St. John, on Thursday morning, 19th inst., MARY A., Wife of Thomas Wallace, Esquire, and second daughter of I. L. Bedell, Esquire.
