No. 5.

His Excellency the Commander in Chief feels much regret at learning that another Officer of the New Brunswick Militia has entered the service of a Foreign State. His Excellency takes this opportunity of reminding all Officers and Men of the New Brunswick Militia, that to join the service of any Foreign Power, without the express permission of Her Majesty, is a statutable offence, punishable by fine and imprisonment; and that, where the apprehension and conviction of any such offender may be practicable, it will be His Excellency's duty to enforce, in all their rigour, the provisions of the Law.

By Command.

THOMAS M. CROWDER,

EDUCATION OFFICE,

FREDERICTON, 6TH FEBRUARY, 1864.

The Provincial Board of Education, in virtue of the powers vested in them by the Act of Assembly, 24 Victoria, Chapter 15, have adopted the following Rules and Regulations for the government of the County Grammar Schools, excepting the Collegiate School, Fredericton, and the Grammar School, Saint John, viz:—

1. Master.—No person shall in future be eligible to take charge of any of the County Grammar Schools under the general control of the Board of Education, who is not a Graduate of some University or College authorized by Law to confer Degrees, or who has not received a Certificate of qualification upon examination before the Board.

2. School House.—No School shall be deemed a Grammar School which is not kept in a school house fully supplied with all necessary appurtenances, and large enough to allow in the principal school-room not less than one hundred and fifty cubic feet of air to each pupil, not only on an average during any term, but on each and every day of it.

3. Pupils.—No School shall be accounted a Grammar School in which there shall not be an average daily attendance of not less than fifteen pupils over ten years of age, although pupils under that age may be admitted at the discretion of the Trustees and Directors.

4. Instruction.—In each Grammar School there shall be regularly instructed not less than five pupils in Latin, Greek, and Mathematics, or any two of these branches; and not less than ten in English Composition and Modern History.

5. The Semi-Annual examinations of each of the Grammar Schools and the report thereon, shall be made by the Trustees and Directors on the first Monday in May, and the first Monday in November in each year; and immediately thereafter the Return of each School shall be transmitted to the Office of the Provincial Secretary by the Master, who shall attest the correctness of such Return by Affidavit to be made before any Justice of Peace.

6. These Rules and Regulations shall come and be in force from and after the first Monday in May 1864.

JOHN BENNET.
