in the County of Kent, on the last Saturday in October next, between the hours of twelve o'clock, noon, and five o'clock, P. M.:

ALL the right, title, interest, or claim, of George Hebert, of the Parish of Dundas, in the County of Kent, to one undivided half or part of a certain Lot of Land beginning at the Cocaigne Harbour, on the line between the said lot and Thomas Johnson; thence running westwardly to the rear of the front lots; thence northerly to land in possession of one Nory Legere; thence eastwardly to the Shore; and southerly by the shore to the place of beginning, as will fully appear on reference to Book P, page 79, Kent County Records, containing one hundred acres, more or less: Also, all a certain piece of Marsh land beginning at the Cocaigne Harbour, on the line between George Hebert and one Lazare Hebert; thence west to land in possession of one John White and one Ambrose Porrier; thence east by Ambrose Porrier's line to the shore; thence south by the shore to the place of beginning, containing seven acres, more or less: Also, all that other piece or parcel of land upon which the said George Hebert's Saw Mill now stands, bounded on the Road leading from the Bro Settlement Road to the said Mill at the boundary between said George Hebert's and Maxamin Hebert's lands, and following the said line easterly twenty two rods; thence northerly at a right angle to said line until it strikes George Bro's line; thence down the said Bro's line to the Mill Creek; thence down said Creek until it strikes the said Mill Road; thence southerly along said road to place of beginning, containing five acres, more or less, as by reference to Book P, page 271, Kent County Records, will appear: Also, all those other six pieces of land, described as follows, in the Kent County Records, Book H, page 183,— "All the northernmost one half of all that piece or part of lot No. 14, on which Francis Hebert now resides, lying to the westward of the road leading to Buctouche by the sea shore, save and except only one lot, piece, or parcel of land, lying on the west side of the Post Road, to have a front on said road of seventeen rods, and twenty two rods back, being the lot upon which Amie Hebert now resides: Also, one lot or piece of land lying on the east side of said road, being part of the southernmost half of said lot, and to have a front on the road of seventeen rods, and twenty two rods back: Also, ten acres of land on the Cocaigne Island, being the southernmost angle of land purchased by Francis Hebert from Noel John: Also, all that part of the Upland of the lot granted to Francis Arseno, being to the eastward of the road leading to Buctouche by the sea shore: Also, the southernmost two thirds of all that part of the said lot granted to Francis Arseno, lying to the westward of the Post Road." Also, all that piece or parcel of land granted
