

ARTICLE IV.

The transit of goods to and from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland shall be free from all transit duties in the Zollverein, and the transit of goods to and from the Zollverein shall be free from all transit duties in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

ARTICLE V.

Any favour, privilege or reduction in the Tariff of duties of importation or exportation, which either of the Contracting Parties may concede to any third Power, shall be extended immediately and unconditionally to the other.

No prohibition of importation or exportation shall be established by either of them against the other, which shall not at the same time be applicable to all other nations.

The Contracting Parties engage not to prohibit the exportation of coal, and to levy no duty upon such exportation.

The preceding provisions respecting the prohibition of exportation shall not invalidate the obligations which the Constitution of the Germanic Confederation imposes on the German States which compose the Zollverein.

ARTICLE VI.

With regard to the marks or labels of goods, or of their packages, and also with regard to patterns and marks of manufacture and trade, the subjects of the States of the Zollverein shall enjoy in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the subjects of Her Britannic Majesty shall enjoy in the States of the Zollverein, the same protection as native subjects.

ARTICLE VII.

The stipulations of the preceding Articles I to VI shall also be applied to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty. In those Colonies and possessions the produce of the States of the Zollverein shall not be subject to any higher or other import duties than the produce of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other country, of the like kind; nor shall the exportation from those Colonies or possessions to the Zollverein be subject to any higher or other duties than the exportation to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

ARTICLE VIII.

The present Treaty shall come into force on the 1st of July, 1865, and shall remain in force until the 30th of June, 1877. In case neither of the Contracting Parties shall, twelve months before the last-mentioned day, have given notice to the other of the intention to terminate the operation of the Treaty, then the same shall continue in force until the expiration of one year from the day upon which either of the Contracting Parties shall have given notice to the other to terminate the same.

ARTICLE IX.

The present Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications thereof shall be exchanged at Berlin in three weeks,* or sooner if possible.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Berlin, the thirtieth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty five.

IN COUNCIL—11th August, 1865.

ORDERED, That the Registration Fee imposed on Letters by Part VII, Sections 2 and 3, of the Post Office Regulations, approved by the Governor in Council, and issued in 1862, be reduced from ten cents to five cents in addition to postage, when prepaid, and from twenty cents to ten cents in addition to postage, on unpaid Letters.

MONEY LETTERS.

Registration.

The attention of the public is directed to the foregoing Order in Council, reducing the Post Office Fee on Registered Letters, passed with a view to encourage the Registration of Letters containing Money or Articles of Value, as the best means, (when the Money Order System is not resorted to,) of securing the safe transmission and delivery of such Letters.

Although Registration is not an absolute guarantee or protection against fraud, it affords the means of tracing the Letter through each Office to its actual delivery, and cannot be suppressed without leaving the Officer into whose hands it has been traced individually accountable for its disposal. The use of wax, in addition to adhesive envelopes upon such Letters, is suggested as an additional security against the abstraction of the contents.

Registration applies to all Letters indiscriminately, whether containing value or not.
