TO BE SOLD AT PUBLIC AUCTION,

ON Thursday the sixth day of April next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon, at Chubb's Corner (so called,) in the City of Saint John, pursuant to a Decree of the Supreme Court in Equity, made in a cause wherein John M'Intosh is Plaintiff, and Joseph Stewart and Mary his wife, are Defendants, under the direction of the undersigned, one of the Barristers of the said Court:—The Lands and Premises mentioned and described in the said Plaintiff's Bill, and in the said Decree, as "All that certain lot, piece or parcel of Land, conveyed by Andrew M'Vey and Mary his wife, to Mary Stewart aforesaid, by Deed dated the first day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty one, and registered in Book W, pages 155 and 156, of Records of Deeds, in the Registrar's Office of King's County, and in the same Deed described as follows, viz: 'One hundred acres of Land, on the southeast side of the main road leading from the head of the Patticake Meadows to Sussex, and from the northeasternmost part of the Farm on which we now dwell, situate in the said Parish of Norton, butted and bounded as follows, viz: on the northwest by said main road, on the northeast by land owned by Fortune Hodges, on the southeast partly or wholly by land reserved for the Church, and on the southwest by a line drawn at right angles from the side lines, at such distance from the side line of Fortune Hodges as will give one hundred acres.' Also, all that other lot, piece or parcel of Land conveyed by Andrew M'Vey and Mary his wife, to the said Joseph Stewart, by Deed dated the first day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty one, and registered in Book W, pages 156 and 157, of Records of Deeds, in the Registrar's Office in and for King's County, and therein described as follows, namely—All that certain piece or parcel of the Farm on which we now dwell, situate in the said Parish of Norton, which lies between the main road leading from the head of the Patticake Meadows to Sussex and the Mill Brook, so called (with the exception of one hundred acres on the northeast extremity of the same, which is conveyed by Deed bearing even date herewith to Mary, wife of the said Joseph, and to her heirs); and also the privilege of erecting a Mill and dam and flowing of water from the same, butted and bounded as follows, viz: on the northwest by the said road leading to Sussex; on the northeast by the said one hundred acres deeded to his wife Mary, and her heirs; and southerly, partly by land granted to Elijah Baxter, and the remainder of the said Mill Brook, which leads to the aforesaid road at the head of the Patticake Meadows, including so much land on the southern side of the Mill Brook as may be necessary for erecting a Mill and dam on the same, and the privilege of flowing water from the said dam. Also, all that other lot, piece or parcel of Land, conveyed by Andrew M'Vey to Joseph Stewart aforesaid, by Deed dated the thirty first day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty five, and registered in Book L, No. 2, page 665, of Records, in the Office of Registrar of Deeds in and for King's County, and in and by the same Deed described as follows, namely: all that certain piece or parcel of the Farm on which we now dwell, situate in the said Parish of Norton, which lies on the northwestern side of the main road leading from the head of the Patticake Meadows to Sussex Vale, butted and bounded as follows, viz: on the southwest by land owned by Robert M'Vey; on the northwest by a line to be drawn from a stake placed on said Robert M'Vey's line (at a distance of twenty rods from said highway or road, in a northeasterly direction, until it intersects a line to be drawn at right angles from said line,) to strike a certain pine stump standing on the northwestern side of the aforesaid highway or road, at the distance of fifteen rods from the said road, and measuring one hundred rods on the road from the place of beginning; on the northeast by the latter named line, and on the southeast by the highway or road, containing ten acres, be the same more or less; together with all and singular the Houses, Mills, Barns, Buildings, erections and improvements on the Land and Premises hereby conveyed, standing and being, and all and singular the rights, members, privileges and appurtenances to the same belonging or in any wise appertaining; and the reversion and reversions, remainder and remainders, rents, issues and profits thereof, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances; and also all the estate, right, title, dower, right of dower, interest, property, claim and demand whatsoever of the said Joseph Stewart and Mary his Wife, or either of them, of, in, or to the same, and every part and parcel thereof, with the appurtenances.—For terms of sale and further particulars, inquire of the Plaintiff's Solicitor.—Dated the twenty ninth day of December, A. D. 1864.
