Fredericton, February 7, 1866.

His Excellency the Administrator of the Government directs the publication of the following Documents.

GRAND TURK, 8th October, 1866.

SIR,—Having been requested by the Merchants and other inhabitants of this Colony, I have the honor to forward to Your Excellency a printed copy of an appeal, which they have made to the Governments and Peoples, as well as to the Chambers of Commerce in the several West India Islands and North American Provinces, on behalf of the destitute poor and others in this Colony, many of whom lost everything of which they were possessed, and all of whom suffered more or less severely from the terrific hurricane with which we were visited on Sunday the 30th of September last.

2. Knowing well the warm sympathy with distress ever evinced by fellow colonists, many of whom have been similarly affected, I feel sure that that appeal will not be made in vain, especially if countenanced by Your Excellency's kind support.

3. Our soil being unfit for the cultivation of any food except that of Guinea Corn and Sweet Potatoes, all of which must have been swept from the lower Caicos, from which I have not yet heard, our clamant wants are—

1st. Food of all kinds,

2nd. Lumber and Shingles of all kinds,

3rd. Ready-made and cast-off clothing for the poor and needy.

4. I need not assure Your Excellency that so far as the resources of the Government will permit, I shall be glad to purchase any of the above which may be sent for sale, and I know Your Excellency will excuse me in reminding you that unless some vessel soon arrive, we may speedily be in a worse case than at present.

5. Time will not permit me to do more than to enclose a copy of a sheet which issued from our local Press on Saturday, giving a very accurate account of the damage done by the hurricane, so far as it has yet reached me.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your Excellency's

Most obedient, humble servant,

ALEX. W. MOIR.

To His Excellency the Lieut. Governor,
New Brunswick.

APPEAL TO THE GOVERNMENTS AND PEOPLES OF THE NORTH AMERICAN PROVINCES AND BRITISH WEST INDIA ISLANDS.

Minutes of proceedings of a meeting of Merchants and others of the Turks and Caicos Islands, held at the Consulate of the United States at Grand Turk, Turks Islands, the sixth day of October, A. D. 1866.

WHEREAS it has pleased Divine Providence to visit these Islands with one of the most terrific hurricanes ever known here, and which occurred on the 30th September last, the effects of which have been ruinous to the inhabitants and trade of this Colony, sweeping away in its fury about twelve hundred thousand bushels of Salt—the staple of these Islands; damaging materially the Salt pans, destroying the machinery and other implements used in the manufacture of Salt; demolishing about eight hundred houses with their contents, whereby hundreds of persons are left homeless and destitute, compelling them to seek refuge in the places of worship and cellars of such houses as are left standing, their chief sustenance and clothing being provided
