Official Notifications appearing in this Paper, duly authenticated, are to be received as such by the persons whom they may concern.

BY AUTHORITY.

By His Excellency The Honorable ARTHUR HAMILTON GORDON, C. M. G., Lieut. Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.

ARTHUR H. GORDON.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS the General Assembly of this Province stands prorogued to Thursday the twenty seventh instant, I have thought fit further to prorogue the said General Assembly, and the same is hereby prorogued accordingly to Thursday the eighth day of November next.

Given under my Hand and Seal at Fredericton, the nineteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty six, and in the thirtieth year of Her Majesty's Reign.

By His Excellency's Command.

R. FULTON, Ass't Sec'y.

HIS Excellency the Lieutenant Governor directs the following Despatch with Enclosure from the Secretary of State for the Colonies, to be published for general information:—

(CIRCULAR.) Downing Street, 22nd August, 1866.

SIR,—In consequence of the prevalence of Cholera in this Country, Her Majesty's Government have considered it necessary to advise the Queen to exercise the power vested in Her Majesty by the 59th Clause of the Passenger Act of 1855, and to cause an Order in Council to be passed, requiring that, from and after the 20th instant, every Passenger Ship to which the said Act extends, carrying more than Fifty Passengers, shall have on board a duly qualified Medical Practitioner.

I have the honor to transmit to you Six Copies of this Order, and to request that you will cause it to be made public within the limits of your Government, and that you will give such further directions as may be requisite for ensuring the due observance of its requirements.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your most obedient humble servant,
CARNARVON.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1866.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Passengers' Act, 1855, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by any Order in Council, to prescribe such rules and regulations as to Her Majesty may seem fit, for certain purposes in the said Act specified, and, amongst others, for requiring duly qualified medical practitioners to be carried in passenger ships, in cases where they would not be required to be carried under the provisions of the said Act. And such Order in Council from time to time, in like manner, to alter, amend, and revoke as occasion may require:

And whereas from the prevalence of choleraic disease in certain parts of the United Kingdom, it has become expedient that Her Majesty should exercise the discretion and authority so vested in Her as aforesaid:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the authority vested in Her by the said Passengers' Act, 1855, doth hereby order as follows; that is to say:

From and after the 20th instant, and so long as this Order shall continue in force, every passenger ship, carrying more than 50 passengers on any voyage to which the said Act extends, shall, whatever be the duration of the voyage, and subject to the provisions of the 42nd section of the said Act, carry a duly qualified medical practitioner, who shall be rated on the ship's articles.

To prevent all doubts in the construction of this Order in Council, it is hereby further ordered, that the terms "passenger," and "passenger ship," shall have the same significations as are assigned to them respectively in the said Passengers' Act, 1855, and unless inconsistent with the context words of one number shall import both numbers.

And the Right Honorable the Earl of Carnarvon, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

ARTHUR HELPS.
