RULES AND REGULATIONS

Relating to the Fisheries of the Islands of Grand Manan and West Isles, in the County of Charlotte, passed by His Excellency in Council 22nd January, 1867.

1. That no Trap, Weir, or Engine, Brush or Wooden Barricade, shall be set or placed on either side of Cow Passage or Cheney's Passage, in the Island of Grand Manan, without leaving a continuous clear passage or channel of the width of five hundred feet following the deepest water of the same; and that no wings belonging or used therewith, or attached to any such Traps, Weirs, or Engines, or Brush or Wooden Barricades, shall extend beyond or into the channels of the said Passages, or either of them, so as to diminish the said width of five hundred feet, under a penalty in either case of not less than Twenty Dollars nor more than Forty Dollars.

2. That in no case in the Islands of Grand Manan and West Isles, in the County of Charlotte, shall Weirs, Traps, or Engines, Brush or Wooden Barricades, be placed nearer each other than six hundred feet, distant from, and running parallel with each other, under a like penalty, in each and every case, of not less than Twenty Dollars nor more than Forty Dollars.

3. The Wardens of Districts Nos. 1 and 2, or either of them, as the case may be, are authorized and required in the event of a violation of either of the said Rules, in addition to the penalties therein imposed, when it is thought necessary by the said Wardens in their respective Districts, to destroy the said Weirs, Traps, or Engines, or Brush or Wooden Barricades, or Wings belonging to them, or used therewith, or attached to them, or each or any of them respectively, or such portions thereof as the said Wardens, in their respective Districts, may deem necessary.

R. FULTON.

Secretary's Office, 23rd Jan. 1867.

MILITIA GENERAL ORDERS.

HEAD QUARTERS, FREDERICTON, 23rd January, 1867.

His Excellency the Commander in Chief has been pleased to publish the following General Orders.

No. 9.

His Excellency the Commander in Chief, having observed that Correspondence with the Adjutant General's Department is carried on in some instances in an irregular manner, has been pleased to direct that all Communications be forwarded through Officers commanding Corps, to the Adjutant General of Militia, except in cases of Officers commanding Volunteer Companies, which belong to Battalions of Militia, who may communicate direct to the Adjutant General on subjects connected with the interior arrangement of their Companies, all other Correspondence to be transmitted by the Officers commanding their Battalions.

No. 10.

No. 1. Officers who desire to leave their Company or Battalion Districts for any period exceeding one month, must apply for leave of absence to the Officers commanding their Corps.

2. Officers who are about to leave the Province, to reside elsewhere, will be pleased, previous to their departure, to forward the resignation of their Commissions to the Officer commanding their Battalion, for transmission to the Adjutant General; failing to do so, their Commissions are liable to be cancelled.—Vide Queen's Regulations.
