IN THE SUPREME COURT IN EQUITY.

Between Richard Simonds and Lewis J. Almon, Executors of the last Will and Testament of John Simonds, deceased, Plaintiffs; and George Rouse and Elizabeth Rouse his wife, and Isabella Paley, Defendants.

WHEREAS it has been made to appear to me by Affidavits to my satisfaction, that George Rouse and Elizabeth Rouse his wife, two of the above named defendants, are out of the limits of this Province, so that they cannot be served with summons in this cause; and that the above named Plaintiffs, as Executors of the late John Simonds, have good prima facie grounds for filing a Bill against the above named defendants in this cause: I do therefore order that the said defendants George Rouse and Elizabeth Rouse his wife, do cause an appearance to be entered for them in this cause, in our Supreme Court, on the Equity side, on or before the tenth day of May next.—Dated this 2nd day of February, A. D. 1867.

W. J. RITCHIE.

LEWIS J. ALMON, Plaintiffs' Sol.

THE SUPREME COURT IN EQUITY.

MONDAY, 8th APRIL, 1867.

Before His Honor Justice ALLEN.

Between Gertrude Ann Simonds, Executrix and Trustee of the last Will and Testament of Henry G. Simonds, deceased, Lucy Gertrude Simonds, Edmund Ironsides Simonds, Irene Maud Simonds, by Gertrude Ann Simonds, their next friend, Plaintiffs; and Elisha Broad, Norman William Broad, and Willard Lynam Broad, Defendants.

ON Motion made this present day unto this Court by Mr. Rainsford, being of the Plaintiffs' Counsel, and upon reading the affidavit of Elisha Broad, one of the above named Defendants, whereby it appears that Norman William Broad and Willard Lynam Broad are Infants: It is ordered, that unless the said Infant Defendants do cause their appearance to be entered in twenty days from the date of this Order, the Plaintiffs shall be at liberty to prove their case against the said Norman William Broad and Willard Lynam Broad, by affidavit.

By the Court.

W. CARMAN.
