THE SYNOD OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH of the Maritime Provinces, in connexion with the Church of Scotland, at their late Meeting in Chatham, Miramichi, agreed upon the following Address to His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor, which is here subjoined.

On Friday the 9th instant, the Rev. Dr. Brooke of this City, the Rev. George M. Grant of Halifax, and the Rev. George J. Caie, of Saint John, as a Deputation from the Synod, waited upon His Excellency at Government House, by appointment, and presented the Address.

To His Excellency LEMUEL ALLAN WILMOT, D. C. L., Lieutenant Governor of the Province of New Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.
May it please Your Excellency,—

We, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbyterian Church of the Maritime Provinces, in connexion with the Church of Scotland, now in Synod assembled, are happy to avail ourselves of this our first meeting since your appointment to the high office which you now hold, to offer our sincere congratulations on your having been selected to administer the Government in this Province.

Enjoying, as we do, the great benefit of living under the protection of British laws, we beg to assure Your Excellency of our devoted loyalty to the British Throne, and our unaltered love for British institutions.

It is gratifying to us, and honorable to Your Excellency, that a native of the Province now occupies the highest place in the land of his birth; and to this honour your long public services in Parliament and on the Bench, as well as your unwearied exertions in seeking to promote the welfare of the country by every means in your power, well entitle you.

We congratulate Your Excellency on the peace and prosperity which the Province has enjoyed under your government; and it is our earnest prayer that these blessings may long be continued to us.

The Intercolonial Railway, and others now in progress, will, we trust, be completed in due time, and must render the period of Your Excellency's government a memorable era in the history of these Provinces.

The interest that you have shown in the great cause of Education demands our warmest thanks; and we are sure they cannot fail to be attended by the most beneficial results.

That Your Excellency may long be spared to witness the growing prosperity of your native country; that God may abundantly prosper you in all your efforts to promote its welfare; and that Mrs. Wilmot and yourself may enjoy every temporal and spiritual blessing,—is our earnest prayer.

Signed in name, and by appointment of the Synod of the Maritime Provinces, in the Dominion of Canada, in Saint Andrews Church, Chatham, this fifth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty nine.

Moderator.

His Excellency was pleased to make the following Reply:—

To the Ministers and Elders of the Presbyterian Church of the Maritime Provinces, in connexion with the Church of Scotland.

REVEREND GENTLEMEN,—

Your congratulations on my appointment to the office of Lieutenant Governor are most gratifying to me, and sincerely do I thank you for them.

Most highly do I appreciate your favorable reference to my past public services, and I consider myself most fortunate in having deserved the approbation of those who have at all times been distinguished for their learning, their patriotism, and their zeal for the diffusion of our common christianity.

We are making rapid strides in national progress. The facilities of communication with which we shall soon be favored, will connect us with the railway system of the Continent. Facilities for travel and commercial intercourse constitute one of the distinguishing characteristics of the present day. To us in our New Dominion such facilities are indispensable to our national growth, and I hope will soon be in operation; and with God's blessing we shall grow. With all the resources required for a great Empire, and under the fostering care of the British Government, we shall sadly fail in our duty if we do not so manage our affairs as to transmit to those who come after us an inheritance worthy of its imperial lineage, and distinguished for all that constitutes national goodness and national greatness. Such a result cannot be attained without the general diffusion of education; and as your Church has ever been among the foremost in this great work, so do I believe it will maintain its position for the future.

I sincerely thank you for your christian benediction; and it will be a pleasant memory to myself and Mrs. Wilmot that we have been thus remembered by the Ministers and Elders of the Presbyterian Church of the Maritime Provinces, in connexion with the Church of Scotland, in the Synod of 1869.
