That in order to defray the expense of maintaining the said grounds and buildings, and repairing the erections thereon, and keeping the same in fit and proper state for the purposes of a fair and market, and for the payment of the persons employed by them in attending to such fair and market, it shall be lawful for the said Saint John County Agricultural Society to impose and collect such reasonable tolls and fees on the cattle and other live stock brought to the said fair and market for the purpose of sale and disposal, as they may deem necessary for such purpose.

3. Such tolls and fees shall constitute a lien upon the cattle or other live stock, in respect of which the same shall have been incurred, and may be recovered either by suit in a Court of competent jurisdiction, or by a sale at auction of the cattle or other live stock, on two clear days notice to the owner or person in charge of the same, or on seven clear days printed, or printed and written notice posted on the main entrance, or other prominent place on the said fair and market grounds; and the said Agricultural Society shall, out of the proceeds of such sale, retain to the said Agricultural Society all proper tolls, fees, expenses, and expenses of sale, and shall hold the balance of such proceeds, subject to the order of the owner or person in charge of such cattle or other live stock; and if the owner or person in charge shall not, within one calendar month after such sale, claim the said amount, the same shall become vested in the said Agricultural Society; provided however, that no right to tolls or fees, or lien for the same, shall accrue to the said Agricultural Society, in respect of any cattle or live stock, unless a printed, or printed and written notice of the tolls and fees, according to which such tolls and fees, or lien as aforesaid, shall be claimed, shall have been posted up on the main entrance, or other prominent place on such fair or market grounds, before and at the time the cattle or other live stock, in respect of which such tolls or fees, or lien shall be claimed, shall have been received into such fair or market, or unless the owner or person in charge shall at such time have had notice of such fees or tolls.
