CAP. XXXI.

An Act to regulate the Public Landings in the City and Harbour of Saint John.

Sec.

- 1 Additional powers to Mayor, &c.

Sec.

- 2 Constables of Police may arrest without warrant.

Passed 17th May 1871.

WHEREAS it is desirable to increase the powers of the Common Council of the City of Saint John to regulate the Public Landings in the City of Saint John;—

Be it therefore enacted by the Lieutenant Governor, Legislative Council, and Assembly, as follows:—

1. It shall and may be lawful for the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of the City of Saint John, in Common Council, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, in addition to the powers granted to them by the Charter of the City of Saint John, and the Laws in force relating to said City, to make, establish and ordain laws and ordinances for the regulation of the public wharves, piers, floats and landings in the City and Harbour of Saint John, and any of them, and of the persons resorting thereto, as well the passengers arriving thereat or embarking therefrom, as the coachmen, cartmen, porters, and all other persons whomsoever, either upon or at the said wharves, piers, floats, and landings, as also upon the streets, places and thoroughfares adjoining the same, or any part thereof; and with and under such fines, penalties, forfeitures, and punishments, by imprisonment and otherwise, as the said Common Council may see fit and determine.

2. It shall and may be lawful for, and it shall be the duty of the constables of the Police force of the City of Saint John, to take into custody without warrant, any person who in the view of any such constable shall commit, or who any such constable may believe to have committed any offence against the provisions of any such bye law or ordinance, or shall be or have been guilty of any breach of any of the regulations prescribed by any such bye law or ordinance, and on such arrest convey the offender to the Police Office or Station in the City of Saint John, to be dealt with according to law; and every such policeman shall, for the purposes of this Act, and the enforcing of the provisions of any such bye law and ordinance made under the powers of this Act, have all the powers, authorities, and protections, and be in all respects subject to the liabilities and duties conferred and imposed on the constables of the Police force in the City of Saint John, under the Laws relating to the Police force of the said City; and the policemen of the said City shall be at all times vigilant and faithful in enforcing obedience to the provisions and regulations of every such bye law and ordinance.
